WESTLAKE RESIDENTS TALK OF TREE TROUBLES

Traffic And Taxes Also Discussed At Regular Association Meeting

Trees, traffic and taxes came under fire at the regular meeting of the Westlake Property Owners Association Monday evening.

While trees took up nearly a quarter of the meeting, taxes had to be disposed of as Mayor Paul Green was tied up in a city council caucus meeting and unable to attend the Westlake conclave. (However, Westlake readers, as all Daly City residents, will find a complete story on taxes for the coming year in The Record when the city releases its prospective budget later this month. Taxes are expected to show a slight increase.)

Suggestion

Dr. George Gibson, president of the Association, first suggested to an audience of about 200 residents that they hire a gardener to come around once or twice a year to discuss trees and lawns with the respective home owners.

"Lots of us never had any trees or grass to take care of," Dr. Gibson said, "and therefore don't know too much about them."

The audience was of the same opinion, except for one woman who spoke out loud and clear: "We don't want a tree, anyhow." She was in the minority. Others expressed some concern that a good majority of the parking strip trees were dying, or having a hard time keeping a stiff upper branch.

Bad Problem

After many a resident complained about the status of his trees, including one gentleman who wanted to know: "Is there any place in the whole of Westlake where the kind of a tree that I have in my yard is growing?" Dr. Gibson said: "It's a very worrisome problem."

At this crucial point a member of the audience suggested that the Association write the University of California Agriculture Department to ascertain what type of tree will flourish in the Westlake area. This met with general approval, and Dr. Gibson said he would act immediately on the suggestion. He also noted that he, for one, was convinced many of the wrong type of tree had been planted in Westlake.

The tree topic wound up for the evening when the audience gave an overwhelming vote to hire a gardener to come around but once

Falconer Named To County Staff Of Superintendent

Hugh S. Falconer, who recently resigned as general supervisor for the Jefferson Elementary School District, is now on the staff of the county superintendent of schools.

The popular Broadmoor resident has been appointed Counsultant in Elementary Education on the staff of Superintendent James R. Tormey. He will begin his service July 1.

Mr. Falconer has served as General Supervisor for the Jefferson Elementary School District for the last two years. Before coming to the schools of this county Falconer was Principal of the Intermediate School in the Santa Clara Union High School District. His first teaching experience was in Tehama and Shasta Counties.

Falconer has his A.B. degree from the University of California and will complete work for his Master's degree this summer at San Francisco State College.

Falconer, his wife and family are at present living at 103 Village Lane, Colma.

Cow Juice Proves Favorite State Drink

JUNE 7. (CNS) — Californians are drinking more milk, according to W. B. Woodburn, manager of the California Dairy Industry Advisory Council.

Woodburn said that in the last decade, consumption of fluid milk has increased 25 percent, compared to a national increase of 14 percent.

Average per capita consumption ten years ago in California, the dairy chief stated, was 100 quarts. This has risen to 125 quarts.

The dairymen claim the increase has paralleled a statewide program of advertising and education on the part of dairy farmers and distributors.

NEW EAGLE AND AUXILIARY OFFICERS, Colma Vista Grande Aerie and Auxiliary No. 1848, took office at an impressive joint installation last Thursday evening. They are shown in a happy mood a few minutes after the installation. Details on the installation will be found in a full story on the society page. (Photo by Myra)

Letter To The Editor

Reader Praises Mrs. Cheatham For Stand On School Board Business

Dear Editor:

In the last two issues of your paper you have printed lengthy letters, one criticising Mrs. Cheatham, the other explaining how a school board should be conducted.

It seems odd to me that these two people writing the letters should have so much to offer on their first visit to a school board meeting.

Unlike Mrs. Gómez, I too, was a strong backer of Mrs. Cheatham. I not only asked people to vote for her, but I have attended the school meetings regularly on the fourth Thursday of every month to see her as well as the other two members of the board and Mr. Snell in action. Therefore I feel qualified to speak on behalf of Mrs. Cheatham. Never has Mrs. Cheatham shown anything but dignity, fair-mindedness and impartiality, even to the point of inconveniencing her own family.

Broadmoor Friend

Unlike most families around the Woodrow Wilson area who at that time were crying, "we need a new school on this site, let Broadmoor wait," Mrs. Cheatham could see the desperate need of a school in Broadmoor, and she was working for the good of the Jefferson school district, not just the Woodrow Wilson site and her own children.

Mrs. Cheatham's interest in what the graduates should wear was aroused only after a mother had made an issue about the way graduation was handled. Mrs. Cheatham asked this mother to attend the next meeting and the board would discuss graduation dres. At this meeting Mrs. Cheatham mentioned the idea of caps and gowns and the men board members agreed it was a solution to the age old problem. Mr. Callan even thought the district should purchase the gowns. However, after discussing storage and cleaning, the idea was abandoned.

No Reminder

As executive advisor, Mr. Snell at no point reminded the board that they were interfering with administrative matters. You might know the mother bringing this matter to light was absent from that meeting, but lost no time in gathering a car load of women to take to Redwood City and the County Superintendent's office about the horrors of graduating in a cap and gown.

While these busy women are worrying about clothes, Mrs. Cheatham is at the city hall trying to get the city fathers to do something about sidewalks on Hillside Boulevard, a very busy and dangerous street to the new Colma school. No, her children aren't on that dangerous street, but your's and mine are.

Mrs. Cheatham is the only Trustee that takes time to write letters in The Record to inform the public of what is going on, and she has always urged the attendance of citizens at meetings. If she were not sincere in her efforts to work for better schools, would she be bothered?

In The Beginning Adam Was Eve And They Both Belonged To Daly City

As surely as Adam belongs to Eve, the couple belong to Daly City. That is the contention of local politicos and top legal brains who this week have kept the lights of city hall burning night after night discussing various methods of wrenching the pair from the clutches of San Francisco.

Although reports from the "A&E headquarters" are censored, The Record learned from an informed official today that an offensive on the San Francisco Supervisors is planned early next week. Should local tactics prove successful Adam and Eve streets will soon settle down at a fig and apple tree adorned intersection in Daly City.

LOOKING FOR A HOME

Readers will recall that early last month the two alleged San Francisco streets were bulldozed off Bayshore by the new Freeway project. The San Francisco News' Mr. Fixit brought this to the attention of San Francisco readers and inadvertently exploded the question of Adam and Eve's true residence.

Lending support to Daly City's claim as the true Garden of Eden, is a statement from a local pioneer, A. J. Bodien.

"If my memory serves me correctly, there were two such streets in Vista Grande (Daly City's name before 1911) about 1890. Somewhere in the shuffle of incorporation they left town along with Los Angeles street," Bodien declared.

Other pioneers and historical documents support Bodien's claim that the two streets first found a home here, but were later kidnaped by San Francisco. As for Los Angeles street, it went south with the blessings of both Daly City and San Francisco.

THEY ARE OURS

Lawyers are of the opinion that the statute of limitations does not hold for streets, and consequently Daly City can rightly claim its own in Adam and Eve.

"We think we have our streets back," Mayor Paul Green said today. "We only hope the San Francisco Supervisors are men enough to give us the signs they've prepared for the two streets."

Adam and Eve were coming home to paradise.

Hilltop, Lucca Markets Charged With Violating State Price-Fix Law

Merchants Claim Selling Cigarettes At $1.49 A Carton Is Fair Competition

How little can a merchant charge for cigarettes or other items in his store?

That's the vital question before the San Mateo Superior Court this week. The issue was brought up last Friday following the request for an injunction against two Daly City stores, and other county merchants, offering cigarettes for $1.49 a carton.

Charged with violating the State Fair Practice Act are: the Hilltop Market, 6315 Mission; and Lucca Market, 7470 Mission. George Glass, manager of the Hilltop, and Tom Stanghellini, Lucca manager, are to appear before Judge Murray Draper Monday to answer the charges.

Question of Legality

Meanwhile, the prices of cigarettes in both stores is once again above $1.49 a carton. Glass said he would hold this price until a decision is forthcoming from the court.

Recent action by the Federal Supreme Court, invalidating laws which force merchants to keep prices at a "Fair Trade" level, is expected to exert a strong influence on the current cigarette price controversy.

Already Judge Draper has indicated he does not completely sympathize with the state Unfair Practices Act. In a similar case, involving a Redwood City market, Monday, Judge Draper refused to issue an injunction against the store forbidding them to sell cigarettes at $1.49 a carton. He noted the injunction "makes as much sense as issuing an injunction forbidding murder."

In fact, it is expected that the Redwood City market case will be the test case in the County, and the two local merchants may not have to appear for more than a formal hearing.

Friday Decision

Judge Draper, who expressed disastisfaction with the case, presented both by the state and the merchants Monday, has put over the matter until this Friday afternoon. At that time he is expected to rule on the legality of the state law.

Richard H. Perry, deputy attorney general representing the state in the cigarette case, said the two local markets had been cited in an effort "to prevent any further cutting in prices."

The evident effort of the state to set the price of cigarettes is an attempt to counteract price wars which have broken out in New York and threaten to spread to California and the Bay Area region, Perry indicated.

Specifically, Lucca and Hilltop Markets are charged with violating a law which seeks to "preserve the retail tobacco business in the San Francisco-Peninsula trading area" The complaint was instigated by Max Woerner, San Francisco wholesale tobacconist.

Minimum Price

The Unfair Practices Act provides for a minimum price (the retailer's cost) plus his overhead. The Daly City markets, as well as the Redwood City store, are charged with selling below cost.

Perry claims the average merchant pays $1.42 per carton for cigarettes, and allowing a 10 per cent overhead, must sell them for at least $1.58 to break even. In no case, Perry asserted, can a merchant sell at just cost without at least an 8 per cent mark up for overhead, taxes, depreciation, labor and maintenance.

When, and if Lucca and the Hilltop Market appear before Judge

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES 125

Largest Class In History Leaves June 14

The largest graduating class in the history of Jefferson High school will be the center of commencement exercises next Thursday, June 14 at 8 p. m.

There will be 125 graduates taking part in the program at the school.

This year Kathleen Johnson has been chosen salutatory and Robert Giorni valedictory.

The complete commencement program, including pictures of all but five of the graduates, will be found elsewhere in The Record.

Meanwhile, Friday, June 15, 201 students will hold less formal exercises to mark their graduation from grammar school to high school. These exercises are to be held at Jefferson High school. Full details will be found in next week's Record.

BUILDING SHOWS MAY INCREASE

But June Construction Expected To Lag

Building got a much needed shot in the arm last month, and for the first time this year hit a production figure above 1950.

George Hopman, building inspector, said the total value of building here for May was $1,070,138. This is almost double the amount of construction for the same period last year.

Better weather and an optimistic busines outlook for the month accounted for a good part of the stepped up building, Hopman said. However, he warned that construction would take a light nose dive for the summer months. Stricter credit controls and lack of money are keeping many a family from making the initial down payment on a new home, Hopman declared.

Of the 64 homes built here last month, at a total value of $579,014, the majority were in Westlake. Three Westlake apartment permits were also granted for a total of $440,594 for 99 units. Largest single commercial venture was the new post office at $20,000.

Old Indian War Fighter Dies Here

One of the last of the famed western Indian war fighters put up his guns for the last time here Monday.

He was 98 year old John Meyer who died at the Villa Sanitarium following a short illness. A native of Germany, Meyer came to this country as a youth and secured his citizenship by enlisting in the now famous First Calvary Division.

During the years 1896 to 1890 he ranged the plains of Montana in an effort to check the marauding Sioux and Crow Indians. He fought in several engagements, almost losing his life in a hand to hand battle with the Crows at the Crow Reservation in November, 1887.

Discharged a sergeant in 1890 Meyers left Helena for California. Here he became active in many lines of work and before his retirement had tried his hand at everything from railroading to lumbering.

Although he had almost reached the century mark, Joseph Sarto, manager of the Sanitarium, reports he was in the best of spirits physically and mentally. He was a resident of Daly City for two years, having lived in a San Francisco hotel before moving to the Sanitarium.

Meyers will be buried today, June 7, with full military rites at the Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno. W. C. Lasswell & Company are handling the funeral. He had no known relatives.

Mad Motorist

Here's A Case Where A Driver Reacted Violently To A Honking Horn

Temper allegedly got the best of a Daly City driver Tuesday, as he manipulated his car in a fashion which might well be the envy of other mad motorists.

W. E. Berry of San Francisco told officers he was coming south on Mission when a car made a "U" turn in front of him, and almost hit the side of his car.

Slightly perturbed at the other motorist, Berry honked his horn. The honking horn was like a red flag to a bull . . . the second driver started in pursuit of Berry.

Heading toward the San Jose intersection, the driver leaned out of his car and, according to police, "became quite abusive" to Berry and his wife. At the intersection he attempted to force Berry off the road.

A little worried, Berry speeded up. But it was all in vain. Farther south on Mission the driver caught up with Berry and rammed the side of his car, Berry told police.

The San Francisco driver objected by honking his horn again. This was a mistake. The other motorist backed up his car and came at Berry for a second time.

Satisfied he had done enough damage, the driver smiled happily and left Berry in the middle of Mission street with a slightly dented automobile, and a horn that for once wasn't honking.

At least that is the story Berry tells. Police report he has yet to come in and sign a complaint against the other driver.

Everyone in the family "dates up" our new electric roaster!

Son bids for the electric roaster when he does KP for the gang. Somehow beans, chili, stew, soup, almost everything tastes better cooked in the even, all-round, controlled heat of an electric roaster. Also, the removable, easy-to-wash porcelain enameled cooking well is a cinch for the clean-up squad!

Dad reserves the electric roaster on week ends, cooks the world's best barbecued spareribs, spaghetti, game in season, and other he-man specialties. New-type thicker insulation in modern models has reduced heat loss to an all-time low. An electric roaster plugs into any 115-volt, A.C. outlet . . . ideal for beach house, cabin, patio.

Mom's dates are baking day, holidays, any day when she needs "an extra stove." Or when, on the contrary, she wants to cook a whole meal at one time in a quick and easy way. Thermostat control maintains exact temperature desired, and if model has automatic clock control the roaster turns itself "on" and "off" at pre-set times, gives homemaker hours of welcome freedom.

Newly-married daughter dates up the electric roaster for social events like club get-togethers, buffet parties, picnics. It's easy to carry, keeps food warm for hours. With P. G. and E. rates lower today than in 1940, an electric roaster is a real joy . . . costs only 1¢ or 2¢ per meal to operate. There's a model for every family, every budget. See your dealer's selection today!

Reader Takes Issue With Food Price Law

(Editor's Note: The following letter is in reaction to an order to show cause served on the Hill Top Market this week by the Attorney General's Office. The order is based on the recent "loss leader" items (below cost) advertised by the Market. Full details on page 1.

June 1, 1951

Gentlemen:

Being a homemaker with four children I know how hard it is to get along on one salary, and food is the biggest expense on my budget.

Why in the world are some merchants persecuting the Hill Top Market? (Ed Note: The complaint against the Market was instigated by a San Francisco firm.)

If the others were smart, they would try to beat inflation by keeping prices down instead of trying to make it a "get rich session" taking advantage of everyone.

Could it be that these high priced storekeepers feel that everybody has the easy money they have; and no responsibilities that most of the poor working men have? Then again, they probably have many other sources of income.

Why, oh, why don't these selfish, greedy, dollar loving fools realize that they can't take it with them, and let the little people (or peasants, as they see us), who are the majority, live also?

The world has few fair and unselfish men, like the proprietors of the Hill Top Market, who want to give the working people a chance by not taking them to the cleaners.

OBITUARY

Albino Marciocchi

Requiem Mass will be celebrated at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church this Friday at 10 o'clock for Albino Marchiocchi, 44 Shakespeare Street, who died in San Francisco Monday.

A retired tavern owner, Marciocchi was a native of Italy. He had resided in Daly City for 36 years.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Lena Vacigalupe, Mrs. Norma Pardini, Mrs. Evelyn Nazzi; a sister, Mrs. Phyliss Balabio and four grandchildren.

Following the services at OLPH and W. C. Lasswell & Co. mortuary, interment will be at Italian Cemetery. Rosary was recited at 8 o'clock Thursday.

Mrs. George Soppi

Private funeral services were held from the W. C. Lasswell & Co. mortuary Wednesday for Mrs. George Soppi, 38, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Darragh of Daly City.

Mrs. Soppis died in San Francisco Sunday from burns she suffered when some cleaning solven exploded in her home.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Fisher of New York and Mrs. W. E. Rontent of Tuloumne; and two brothers, Jack of Burlingame and George of Millbrae.

Mrs. Soppi was a native of Princeton, British Columbia, and a graduate of Jefferson High School.

Inurnment was at Cypress Lawn Cemetery.

Trout fishing has been excellent during the past week in El Dorado Canyon in Placer County, according to the National Automobile Club.

Westlake Residents Talk of Tree Trouble

a year to prune the trees. They claimed they only wanted his labor, not his advice on how to grow the trees.

Speed Limit

Turning to traffic control, Dr. Gibson said he had just received word that a 35 mile speed limit will go into effect on the Alemany extension about July 12. Presently the speed limit is set at 50 miles per hour, and has posed a real danger to residents living on either side of the highway.

The Association also hopes in the near future to have signals placed at the main entrances of Westlake off the Alemany extension. To date the state had turned down such requests.

More Business

Other business before the meeting included:

1. A report that 123 drainage problems had been solved, and the committee in charge of this work was doing a "splendid" job.

2. Harry Bosberry gave a report on cub and scout work, observing that there are now 25 boys signed up in a cub pack. He said the boys had been earning a relatively large amount of money through their monthly paper drive and through distribution of The Record each Thursday.

He also set October 6 as the date of the next Association dance, and called on those interested in a mid-summer picnic to contact him.

3. Charles Becker gave a report on the connecting street between Broadmoor and Westlake and gave his opinion that by June 15 the County Planning Commission would approve the route. He noted the question of the road has now dragged on for 1½ years, but that the final approval of the street is "near."

4. George Pingry gave a report on recreation activities, informing the audience that he had been chosen head of the newly organized Daly City Recreation Commission. During this discussion Dr. Gibson said Mayor Green had promised 10 acres for a park in the Westlake area and that development of this area was set for the near future.

5. Dr. Gibson concluded the meeting by calling on all residents to attend both elementary and high school board meetings.

Refreshments were served in the Jefferson High School cafeteria following the meeting.

Letter to The Editor

Quality or Quantity

Come to think of it, is it more schools we want or better schools? There has been no mention of education during all this fuss. Are all parents pleased with the scholastic achievements of their children?

Mr. Editor, if the parents would devote one night a month to the school, instead of trying to shift the responsibility to some committee they would know first hand th eanswer to many questions.

Since Mrs. Cheatham has not changed her platform views on education, I am not retracting my support.

Thank you,
Mrs. John Sorensen

Merchants Claim

Draper the managers are expected to show they sold the cigarettes at a lower than average price to meet competition; and not to start a price war.

Fair Break

"I have always attempted to sell at the lowest prices possible," Glass said of his Hilltop Market today, "and I fail to see where I have violated the law by giving my customers a fair break."

"I realize most people in this area have from three to four members in their family. Consequently, I can't see where it is a crime to cut prices to meet their incomes."

Speaking for Lucca Market, Stanghellini said his market had met the challenge of inflation by selling at the lowest prices possible. He, too, said he could not see where it was illegal to help the customers to save a few cents.

25 Years Together

Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

Celebrating their silver anniversary this Saturday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gallagher, 97 Parma street.

Although the formal date of 25 years of married bliss isn't until June 12, Mr. Gallagher has chosen Saturday to celebrate the event. A party will be held in the 6630 club, at the same address on Mission street, where Gallagher spends a good many hours behind the bar.

Childhood swethearts, the couple met and were married in Chicago. They have six children, all of whom are living in Daly City.

Their children include: Mrs. Evelyn McGuire, Mrs. Dorothy Wall, Mrs. Annamarie Hara, Bob, Edwin and Patricia Gallagher. All except Pat, who is too young for late hours, will be on hand Saturday night to wish their parents many more years of marital serenity.

Gallagher today invited all his family's mutual friends to attend the anniversary party.

LO, THE TREE COMES HOME AGAIN

The tree, long a symbol of man's contentment and oneness with nature, is coming into its own in Daly City.

To be more particular, the tree is taking a top spot in the business of the Westlake Property Owners Association. At a recent meeting of that organization a good part of the time spent on general business was devoted to the problem of raising trees in Westlake.

This interest may appear somewhat trite to the man accustomed to attending meetings where the all mighty dollar, and its relation to business, usually tops the agenda. We, however, think it is about time more residents took an interest in "Mother Nature." Too many of us are so interested in progress, in growth, in pushing the boundaries of Daly City into the hills and valleys that we forget the role of nature.

Over the years the few trees standing in this area have given away to 25 foot lots and stark white houses. In a few back yards a citizen has made a valiant effort to raise a tree, but with little success. Developers, more interested in putting up homes than in beauty, have hacked and whacked out of existence every vestige of natural charm once associated with the Daly City area.

Doing an about face, residents of Westlake have fought hard to grow trees where trees never grew. In almost a pitiful fight to nourish and develop trees the residents have freely admitted they know little or nothing about the soil from which greater America grew. Yet, they are trying to relearn the lessons lost to the progress of machines. They, in a small way, are returning to the soil.

We suppose the more skeptical will laugh at this conclusion; but their laughter is a hollow sound compared to what we hope will some day be rows and rows of strong, sturdy trees in Westlake and Daly City.

THIS WEEK IN Washington

AS TESTIMONY in the great debate over the MacArthur affair droned on before a joint senate committee, the rest of congress moved to get some legislative work done, and there was even talk in some quarters of a summer recess or early adjournment, despite the log jam of legislative matters pending.

Most important of the legislation which must be enacted between now and June 30 is extension of the defense production act of 1950; the extension of reciprocal trade; military and economic aid to Europe and the east; the draft and universal military training and some other lesser legislation, including more veterans benefits, rent control extension, etc.

All major aid programs also expire June 30. The President's message on this question was expected to be in the hands of congress before the end of May, and if congress needs as much time for debate on the question as in the past, the deadline will not be met, and temporary extensions would be in order.

The foreign aid bill likely will include the Marshall plan aid for economic rehabilitation; economic aid for South Korea, non-Communist China and nearby areas; technical aid (the four-point program); arms aid to the Atlantic pact nations and arms aid for Greece, Turkey, Iran, Nationalist China and the Philippines. It may be that discussion on this measure will determine, insofar as congress is concerned, whether our foreign policy should place major emphasis on Europe, or as General MacArthur advises, make the Asian theatre the major area of American aid and action.

Political observers here see in the domestic economic picture a reversal of sentiment to some extent over that of a year ago. It will be remembered that President Truman in the summer of 1950 asked for limited powers to stimulate military production. However, the congress heaped upon him extensive powers over wages and prices as well as production, and these programs have been placed into action with set-up of the various mobilization agencies such as the national production authority and the office of price stabilization, with the defense production administration, presided over by Charles E. Wilson, as the over-all policy making agency.

Newest segment to fan the dissidents into action is the rebellion—not by consumers—but by livestock men, meat packers, distributors and feeders over rollbacks on live and dressed beef, all despite the fact that the live beef ceilings are at some 140 per cent above parity price, which generally is conceded to be a fair price on farm produce, including beef.

It is fairly well known in Washington that Secretary of Agriculture Brannan was not particularly strong for imposition of beef price roll-backs. However, the secretary has approved the OPS ceiling prices and believes they should be given a chance to work. While declaring that we must watch closely cattle marketings and production in the months ahead, and the feed situation as compared to cattle production, Secretary Brannan asserts that judging from the actual experience of the rate at which cattle numbers were increased in 1949 and 1950, average cattle and calf prices at about the 1950 level, which will be allowed by the OPS ceilings, these prices still constitute a reasonable incentive for continuing production of beef animals.

Secretary Brannan points out that beef animals require only about a third as much grain as hogs and other animals and he pointed out how beef herds increased almost two million head during 1949 when the farm price of cattle averaged $19.90 and how the herds increased by 4.1 million head in 1950 at prices averaging $23.10 and the January average, 1951 of $27.00 was even more favorable, while the OPS ceiling price at the Chicago yards range from $27.30 for commercial grades up to $37.05 for prime grades.

So observers here declare it is hard to reconcile the statements made by cattlemen, some farm leaders and others, that OPS ceiling prices will only cause severe shortages, black markets, and rationing at a time when the parity on cattle as of April 1, 1951 averaged only $19.90.

Do What You Fear To Do

AT ONE TIME John Stemle, Jasper, Ind., was afraid to spend the night on the river unless he had a companion and left a carbide lamp burning all night. Not that the companion had to be a fighter; he just had to be there. Not that a little light was so much protection; it could work the other way around.

It was necessary for him to take these river trips in order to attract the attention of a manufacturer for the mass production of a boat he had designed. The questions most frequently asked by the man whom he would encounter in a two dollar rowboat, or in a $30,000 cruiser, was "Aren't you afraid at night? What do you do with yourself?"

Carnegie

Yes, he was afraid. And he searched for things to do in a pup tent on a dark, rainy night on a Mississippi sandbar. Sound is multiplied when you are lying with your ear to the ground. A fox or a coon coming down to the river sounds like a bear crashing through the underbrush. A fish crane looks pretty harmless by day, but at night the sounds it makes are horrible and terrifying. There's another little bird, no bigger than your fist, that emits a blood-curdling, mournful scream. Hearing those noises, made John afraid to go beyond the bounds of his tent. When they occur, one after the other, and sometimes several in unison, there are just two things you can do: (1) Bury your head under a blanket and let your imagination run wild. (2) Open your flap tent and go out and discover from where the noise emanates. The latter is the one and only thing to do, for the moment you discover the source of the sounds, you no longer fear them.

"Conquering that fear of noise at night," says John Stemle, "taught me to conquer other fears. For instance, when anything bothers me to the point of fright, I simply search for the origin! or if it is mental, for the cause. Then when I have done that, fear dissipates into thin air."

This is just one more example of applying the advice: "Do what you fear to do, and your fear will no longer exist."

From A Corner

By Bill Katz

With the coming of summer a general spell of relaxation seems to have settled over Daly City. The hustle and bustle of the winter and spring months is giving way to a more lethargic, "let's go fishing" attitude. Here and there the rigid faces are actually breaking into smiles.

Down at Jefferson High School they are turning out another class of graduates. The young men and women will listen to pretty much the same speeches given 20 years ago; and the majority will wish they were any place but in the school auditorium.

Vacation Cry

And in the grade schools hundreds of children will set up a general shout of "no more teachers, no more books" when the doors of the school close for the summer vacation.

Around city hall, once the budget is out of the way, the officials will settle down for a quiet summer of business except for the calls from residents disturbed by the size of their water bill, or the kids trampling tender, brown lawns.

Coming through Daly City will be scores of unfamiliar license plates, and gawking tourists who are certain this is a section of San Francisco. Some will stop for a moment and seek vainly on their Bay City maps for unfamiliar streets such as Wellington, Hillcrest and Hillside Drives.

Evening Time

When the weather permits, windows and doors will be open to let in the sultry evening air, a few mosquitoes, and the conversation of women talking over the garden fence.

The grocery stores will note a sharp increase in the sale of beer and soft drinks and cold luncheon meats. And in the drug stores large signs promising relaxation from sunburn will be on display.

Women will don light summer dresses while the men will relax for a time in shirt sleeves and sport ties whose knots are as loose as the crease in their pants.

Familiar faces will be absent for a time as vacations long planned become a reality.

Summer is a good time, possibly the best time of a man's year. It is too bad that the attitude of tolerance, ease and humility that comes with summer is not generally exercised throughout the other nine months.

Yet, for thousands of soldiers this summer will be marked only by increased Korean rains and a continuation of the game where high stakes are held by death. There will be no vacation from the fighting, and June as July and August will be but timeless months marked off by moving and digging fox holes in hard, foreign soil.

So Far

Because Korea is so far it is sometimes hard for any of us to visualize what it means; to understand that men of every nationality are waging a hard, bitter war. Even while you and I are relaxing, a man is giving up his life.

We bring this to the fore because with summer more men have time to relax and think, and if ever clear thought was needed, it is needed today. It is not only for us to state our opinion on such things as the Korean-China policy, the loyalty oath, the use of the Atomic bomb; but it is for all men to find the answer to these, and other questions whose answers may determine the future of man; may decide whether the Korean war was a war in vain, or may decide whether we are to go down before the god of war.

If a soldier in Korea must die, we must take time to reason why. The number of summers for any man is limited, but without a clear policy for the future the summer of tomorrow may never be seen.

TROUT FISHING GOOD

Trout fishing has been good lately in the Greenhorn Mountain area of Kern County, according to the National Automobile Club.

The strongest wind ever recorded at Sydney, Australia, was a 95-knot gale, which swept the city on October 31, 1940.

KATHLEEN NORRIS
Mrs. Grundy

"CAN'T YOU DO something about scandalous tongues, and the disgusting way women have of suspecting the worst of each other?" writes one Hartney George of Billings. "My wife and I were happily married for nine years," his letter goes on, "and we had two sons, now 5 and 7. Jean died three months ago in a motor accident. At that time her sister Constance had been living with us for more than a year, their parents both being dead. We three were extremely congenial, and Jean was grateful to have Sunny, as we call Con, for a companion and helper. Con is now 25, seven years younger than Jean, and has always been a sort of pet.

"Since Jean's death Connie has gone on caring for the boys and keeping the household going. The death of my wife was a terrible shock to me; I am not likely to put anyone in her place for a long, long time. Connie, too, was devoted to her sister, and finds her greatest happiness in caring for Jean's boys. So just why gossiping tongues have busied themselves with our affairs is a mystery. But they have, to an extent that makes us both extremely resentful.

Causing Scandal

"Two elderly women, friends of Connie's mother, have called to say that the matter is causing scandal, and yesterday our minister, who has always been a close friend of the family, came in to talk frankly to us both, and to say that we must try to get a 'kind, elderly woman' in to make things right.

"Even if we could find the kind elderly woman we couldn't afford her. Connie has no help except a man for cleaning once a week, and help I give her now that Jean is gone. On Sundays we clean house, and for the rest we try, the boys and I, to spare her. My salary of $5,000 a year does not run to pay of a kind elderly woman who would expect at least $1,200 of it. Everyone in this neighborhood reads your weekly articles, and a good strong reproof to these evil-minded folk might do some good. Is there no such thing as a safe and honorable relationship between man and woman, especially in circumstances like these? Connie is cut to the heart and I am plain mad over this sort of thing. I would like to punch somebody in the nose."

You are punching somebody in the nose, my dear Hartney. I am taking especial care to disguise your location and your name because you are flouting that very important old lady Mrs. Grundy, and conventionally speaking you haven't a leg to stand on. From the standpoint of that code of morals and character and self-control and social responsibility that we are all desperately trying to uphold in these difficult days, you and Connie are proposing to do something that simply can't be done.

An attractive man of 34 and a charming unmarried girl some years younger do not keep house together, unless an older person is somewhere in the picture. Outsiders not only suspect something irregular but more often than not their suspicions are quite justified. Unless a man and a girl under such circumstances actually dislike each other and are burning with resentment and intolerance, they are growing steadily nearer and nearer the moment when propinquity gets in its deadly work.

Find a Solution

Connie, is this case, must either move out or find someone to come and lend dignity to the establishment. Surely there is some mother or aunt or Cousin Lulu who will fill that place until Hartney either finds another wife, or, as seems likely, asks Connie to step into her sister's place.

The laws that control these romantic situations are based on long experience of the weakness of human hearts. If Connie insists on defying convention she may easily find herself in the position of another girl who wrote me some years ago.

This girl—call her Sally—lived on in her sister's house after that sister had died, mothered two babies, and shortly fell so deeply in love with her brother-in-law that she was easily won to give him her full trust in a complete surrender.

The first year went by, and Sidney made no mention of marriage. Another year was well advanced when Sally saw the beginning not only of reproof in the eyes of her neighbors, but pity. Sidney was in love with a fresh young thing who was quite confident that she could manage the house and the babies.

Colma-Vista Grande Aerie, Auxiliary Install Officers

The Colma Vista Grande Aerie and Aux. 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held a joint installation in the beautiful Blue Room of the Masonic Hall Thursday evening.

After placing of the colors, the Star Spangled Banner was sung by an Aux. member, Evelyn Larson, who later in the evening sang several songs accompanied by Greta Owens at the piano.

Members of alo Alto Aerie and Aux. set in the chairs until after the installation, and then surrendered them to the newly elected officers, who in the Aerie are:

R. D. Calvert, Jr., past worthy president; Bill Carrington, worthy president: Del Fehl, worthy chaplain, Mel Battye, secretary, Otto Schram, treasurer; Gerald Summers, Worthy Conductor; Leban Grisel, inside guard; George Wheeler, outside guard; Ernie Bertelli, Lawrence Romero and E. Smith, trustees.

The new officers of the auxiliary are:

Lorene Gardner, jr., past madam president; Alberta Diebel, madam president; Donna Almquist, vice president; Dolores Warren, madam chaplain; Bretta Morris, madam conductress; Frances Nensiel, madam secretary; Marge Lynch, madam treasurer; Jean Blackenhorn, madam inside guard; Elayne Wright, madam outside guard. The three trustees are Mary Vobrel, Calar Scally and Edrie Summers.

Presiding over the ceremonies were Arthur Bodein, past worthy president, and Dorothy Johnson, a past president of the aux.

Acting as installing conductor and conductress were Fred Collins, past worthy president, and Mrs. Dora Black, mother of the aux., assisted by the aux. escort team whose captain is Marge Kennedy.

The team members consist of Myra Laws, Wilma Riley, Elayne Taylor, Mary Romero, Jerry Stahl, Eillein DeBano, Edna Mona and June Leone, dressed in black skirts and white blouses.

They should receive three cheers for the fine work they did. They are so good that they have been asked to officiate at installations of No. 5 and No. 61 of San Francisco, and No. 1373 of South San cisco.

At the close of the installation the new Worthy President Bill Carrington was given a gift by the aerie. It was presented to him by Keith Gramtham, the madam president's nephew, while she was presented a beautiful bouquet of red roses by her neice, Pamela Harper. Among her other gifts was a lovely gavel inscribed with the Madam President Alberta Diebel's name and year office on a silver band encircling the gavel.

The madam president took her new station with the calm and serene way that is characteristic of her, dressed in very regal blue gown of net and satin. The worthy president also seemed quite at ease.

Guest speaker was His Honor Judge Sweeney who spoke about the organizing of Colma-Vista Grande Aerie over 40 years ago. He is the oldest past worthy president of 1848, that is in service and not in age.

Also present was Bob McLellan, who was the installing officer when the Ladies aux. was formed here in Daly City over two years ago, and is also a past worthy president of Aerie 61. He congratulated the Aerie and aux. and especially the escort team.

Last, but not least, Frank Davidson, past worthy president, was presented with a watch fob in memory of his past year as president.

The evening ended with turkey sandwiches and all the trimmings, with coffee and cup cakes for dessert.

The decorations were made by Edrie Summers. The food was made possible by Edna Mona and her crew of willing helpers who worked hard and long and deserve a lot of credit towards making the installation a very nice memory. Congratulations to all.

VILLAGE NOTES

BROADMOOR, GARDEN VILLAGE, COLMA
by
Mrs. Mark Swoverland
PLaza 5-4158

Hi there! Parties, parties and more parties, so let's look at my notes!

Maddox

A canasta party was held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Harris last Thursday. Attending were Mrs. Marion Polites, Mrs. Ampara Arejula, Mrs. Mary Contreras, Mrs. Betty Arthur, Mrs. Sheila Mahoney, Mrs. Irene Parks, Mrs. Fleta Lagoria and Mrs. Betty Hart.

Understand that the Bill Proctor family left for Virginia for a short stay.

Here tell that Mrs. Myrtle Kell sold her homes and is leaving town for Norfolk, Virginia. A farewell party was given for her by Mrs. Pearl Harris. Attending were Mesdames Cecile Grenenger, Lois Courtney, Fredda Sherman, Margaret McElhanny, Fleta Loomis, Helen Mahonev, Sheila Mahoney, Betty Hart, Fleta Lagoria, Mary Contreras, Ampara Arejula, Irene Parks, Marion Polites, Dora Eyereide, Cookie Fambrinie, Jessie Cooke, Myrna Capriva and Doris Menarie.

Colma

Little Donna Dennis celebrated her eighth birthday, May 5.

On Friday, June 1, a Red Cross Tea was given by Mrs. Margaret Pauline Brown to all Colma district workers in the 1951 A. R. C. fund drive. Miss Helen MacGregor and Mrs. Helen Jones, representing the San Mateo County chapter, were present. Mrs. Jane Durand and Mrs. Bristow were unable to be there, and sent a telegram congratulating our "loyal and competent workers."

Refreshments were served and a lovely time was had by all the ladies. Those present were Mrs. John Glasse, Mrs. Ralph Damon, Mrs. Herbert Green, Mrs. Von Kempf, Mrs. Herbert Kern, Mrs. Jerry Hopper and daughter, Cynthia, Mrs. Louis Stanghellini, Mrs. John Wiesner, Mrs. William Chessman, Mrs. Patrick Ptay, Mrs. Alan F. Mori, Mrs. Eagleton, Mrs. David Griffis, Mrs. Politis and Mrs. John Dennis. They enjoyed an afternoon of friendly conversation and discussion of future Red Cross plans.

Garden Village

Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. B. W. Davis and daughter, Marolyn, of 201 Garden Lane, are selling their house and moving to Pearl Harbor.

Nimitz

Flash! Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tobin are proud parents of a new baby boy. More details later.

Midway

Here tell Mrs. Jean Johnson has returned from back east.

Chicken pox and measles are still around here. New victims are Renie Locke, chicken pox, and Johnny Travinsky, measles.

Foothill

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chioffo are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Elaine Sue, born May 25 at Children's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Easterbrook have as their houseguest, Mrs. Easterbrook's mother, Mrs. Huber of New York City.

87th Street

Everyone around 87th Street seems to be on television. Latest to be televised are Susie and Buddy Hess, and Pamila Meitz.

Larchmont

Little Rex Arnot celebrated his 2nd birthday with a party last Thursday. Joining in on the fun were Jean and Jimmy Huber, Donnie Allen and Jimmy Arnot, Dickie Huber, Melody and Kathie Kelly, Sharon and Patricia Corner, Tommy and Janie Thayer, Shirley Forman, Michael, Steve and Bob Durand, Ronnie and Dennie Smith and Mary Beth Tracy.

So long for now.

SALMON ANGLERS HAVE LUCK

Salmon anglers have been bringing in good catches during the past few days on party boats working out of the San Francisco area, according to the National Automobile Club.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By DIANE DALY

Well, here it is—June again! No one need be reminded that this is the month of Brides and Graduates, with so many happy young faces in our midst, deep in the exciting whirl of graduation, or involved in the intricacies, planning and details, which precede the happy day of marriage.

Quite undeniably, both will be faced with problems, confusion, insecurity and doubt—even as you and I, for this is nothing new. Looking back to this time in your own life, you will find it was not so different then.

The young people of today, in spite of adverse criticisms from some sources, have achieved a stature and normalcy that give beauty and promise to the generations to come. For the most part, a clean-cut healthy minded lot, they have all the enthusiasm of youth and a goodly share of courage and common sense which will take them over the hurdles to maturity. In a world of work to be done, the perspective, sense of humor, tolerance and determination of our young people may well bring the world to a sober realization of the great potential of democracy — education based on the dignity of all mankind.

If you had wanted a concrete example of the above you should have been at our local Jeff High last Friday evening, when the "Pomp and Circumstance" crowd (the seniors) put on their annual Senior Ball.

ORIENTAL PARADISE

Against a dark velvet curtain a huge Gold Budha set the theme for the affair, the entrance way arched with a Pagoda, and plaques of oriental figures adorning the walls and intermingling with arrangements of spring boughs covered with blossoms. Gay lanterns and fans also were used to the ultimate effect of oriental fantasy. In such a setting the beautiful pastel frocks in formal and ballerina styles worn by the young ladies and accented by the tux's and white diner jackets of the senior classmen, were especially beautiful and impressive. The couples danced to the music of Bob Ramage and his orchestra.

The Grande March was led by High School Supt. Stanford Hannah, escorting his wife, who was attired in a light blue formal with princess lines and featuring three quarter length sleeves. Senior class Prexy, Bob Kalinin, was next in line with Bev. Bendinelli on his arm, she wearing a diaphanous white net strapless over blue satin.

Some one hundred and fifty made up the promonade, those who will say good-bye to the scene of four years activity and association, when they will be formally graduated a few weeks from now. However, the evening was a gala one, with the PTA members doing a brisk stint at the Punchbowl.

Pausing for refreshment were: Attractive Norma Urcuyo in a lush gold brocade ballerina dance dress, with overskirt of gold lace, with partner Don Ryan, in uniform. Tova Hollingsworth with red heels to match her flame satin frock dancing with Dick Firth. . . Richard Leahy with Jacqueline Berardy who was a vision in pink net. . . . More than a few seniors from Balboa and Poly bolstering the Male shortage. . . . MORE plans for after-dance westivities.

SEEN AT THE FAIRMONT:

Among the crowds in Al Williams Papagayo Room were localites Helen Cooper and Ed Galindo, pitching ace Ed Cereghino with Janet Schrieber, columnist Milt Tromborg with eyes for Diane Venturi and dark-haired Navy-bound Jim Hatchel with golden-haired Marcia Golden. . . all from Jeff's Senior Ball. . . the last four making their debut on the radio program beamed from there. . .

AT THE VILLA CHARTIER:

At a pre-ball dinner party at this popular spot were Lyn Nottingham, who loked lovely in her formal green gown, with Pat McCool. Blonde Diane Hale in emerald slipper satin, doing a lot of listening to Al Hailer. Leroy Paul, of S. F. Poly, holding the chair for Kathleen Johnston, who wore a breathtaking creation of pink nylon tulle over taffeta. . . Don Selhorn, also of Poly, atentively escorting a pretty girl in blue—Dona Enge. Popula Carol Davis looked very sweet in a nile green organdy strapless frock, with Bob Gallagher.

TWOSOMING:

Elaine Pinasco in a roselure strapless formal, with matching bolere, taking much time with partner Pete Delfino. . .

Sherry Lawrence and Kenny Wilbanks at a table for two, and a lovely corsage for ONE. . .

So many others, lovely girls in stunning gowns, with their handsome boy friends, fiance's and school mates . . . having a time to remember. . .

JUNE BRIDE:

In a beautifully simple ritual at The Presbyterian Community Church in Broadmoor last Sunday afternoon, Helen Corsello and Charles R. Henry exchanged their vows. Before the altar, which was banked with baskets of lily and marguerites, they made their responses, with Rev. John Glasse performing the double ring ceremony. The bride and groom wore identical tailored suits of delph blue with white shirts, and accessories and shoes of navy suede. Mrs. Dan Andersen, sister of the bride, was her attendent, and she was attired in a dressmaker suit of orchid. Bob Hansen of San Francisco, was the best man. Following the Nuptials a reception was held at the Dan Andersen's residence on Louvaine Drive, Broadmoor.

Assisting Mrs. Anderson with hostess duties were Mrs. Charles Henry Sr., Mrs. Frank Lombardi, Mis Roene Cook and Mrs. Kenneth Dean. Mrs. Fred Whitman took over Guest Book duties, leaving Mr. Whitman as major-domo in the kitchen.

Following the cutting of the tiered wedding cake, which centered the buffet, the happy young couple departed for a destination unknown. Well wishers included Mr. Paul Green, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanden, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Anderson, Sr. Mr. Louis J. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Amsden and Mr. and Mrs. "Curley" Amsden, Sr. Also Mrs. Sigurd Lee, Mrs. H. S. Garrison and Mrs. James Allen.

CRADLE ROLL:

The third child of Barbara and Bob Del Buono, and second son, was christened last Sunday at Holy Angeles chapel in Colma. Father Reali performing the Baptismal. Baby Barry Henry was dressed for the occasion in a family christening robe, the property of his God mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Markovitch. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Del Buono entertained the Markovitches at dinner.

STORK CIRCUIT:

Passing the cigars in the office of Fahey Realty, was the popular Ernest Del Rosa who third child, and first son, was born June 2, at Children's Hospital. Named Ernest Edward Jr. after his proud papa, he will soon take over things at the family home at 1540 Sweetwood Drive, Broadmoor.

OFFICER SWITCH:

At the Mothers Club Installation held Wednesday evening in OLPH Hall, Mrs. G. J. Calegari handed the gavel to the new president, Jean Dening. Also installed were Ruth Cresta as Vice Pres., Secretaries were (Recording) Eleanor McDougal, (Financial) Catherine Ricci and keeping an eye on the checkbook as Treasurer was Dorothy Carrington.

HOSPITALITY EXCHANGE:

"Open House" was observed by the Mission Aerie, FOE last Sunday afternoon with our local group installing officers in ceremonies which were held at the Mission Aerie's new home on Valencia St., S. F. Bert Merritt and Fred Collins acted as Installing Pres. and Conductor.

RECUPERATING:

Mr. Paul Padgett, 79 Abbot Street, was hospitalized recently for an emergency apendectomy, but is home again now, and much better, Mrs. Padgett reports.

CANDLELIGHT NUPTIALS:

Lighted tapers and massed white flowers predominated in the Grace Prsbyterian Church Saturday evening, when June Hutchison and Rudy Gerstle said their "I do's." Daughter of the Alec Hucthisons of Armadale, Scotland, June was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. James Dowell, 562 Evergreen St., Daly City.

The bride, in traditional white, wore a beautifully styled model of sheer mouselline de sois, which effected a scalloped boat neckline and featured a long train. Her veil was held by a matching coronet and she carried a sprav of white roses, bouvardia and liliesof -the-valley. Preceding her down the aisle was her matron of honor, Mrs. John Young, who wore a ballerina length frock of white organza over pale green. Best man duties went to the brother of the groom, Kurt Gerstle.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church. Receiving were Mr. and Mrs. James Dowell, Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Gerstle, Mr. and Mrs. George Young, and Mr. and Mrs. John McBride.

SEEN AT THE EAGLES INSTALLATION:

Beautiful teamwork and precision of the black and white clad escort team, captained by Marge Kennedy. . . Mother of the Auxiliary, Dora Black, becoming in all white formal, escorted by Mr. Fred Collins, Grand Marshall. Dorothy Johnson cynosure of all eyes, strikingly attired in a strapless creation of sheer white nylon chiffon, and a matching stole, doing honors as Installing Officer. Double Installation with partner officers of Aerie and Auxiliary taking their oaths together. Gracious Lorene Gardner, retiring President, so pretty in acqua net formal, receiving plaudits for her eventful year. . . Mr. Calvert handing over the gavel to Bill Carrington, new President of the Aerie. Beautiful Flowers presented to Alberta Diebel, incoming President of the Auxiliary, by her niece and nephew, making a beautiful picture in her acqua net over satin gown, effecting a tiered banded skirt. A new inscribed gavel for the "first lady" . . . Vice Pres. Dona Almquist, in becoming peach brocade. . . Frances Nansteil in pale pink satin, partnering with Mel Battye, for terms as Secretary. . . Demure Dolores Warren wearing a charming frock of white eyelet over blue, on the arm of fellow Chaplain Del Fehl. Conductors Breta Morriss, in pink net, with Jerry Summers. Looking like a million were Treasurers Marge Lynch, in a becoming green crepe model with her corresponding oficer Otto Schram. Elaine Wright with George Wheeler and Jean Blankenhorn with Tex. Grissell being installed as Outside and Inside Guards respectively. . . Kudos to Arthur Bodien who did a fine job as Installing Officer for the Aerie. . . Mrs. Clyde Haxton Is Party Hostess

In celebration of the first birthday anniversary of Larry Lee Haxton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Haxton, his mother was hostess at a delightful party Saturday evening at their home at 158 W. Moltke street.

Artistic arrangements of blue and white crepe paper featured the decorations, while the small guest of honor received many lovely gifts.

Those helping Larry fete his anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Studinger, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. Padilla, Mr. and Mrs. D. Moshell, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gily, Mrs. D. Alvarez, Mrs. J. Garcia, Mrs. M. Cava, Mrs. H. Banfield Donna, Roger and Gerald Moshel, Darlene and Betty Banfield, Gary Gely, Ronald Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Haxton.

Women's Council To Meet Friday

All members of the Grace Presbyterian Church Women's Council were invited today to attend a regular meeting of that organization at 1 o'clock this Friday, June 8.

The meeting is to be held at the church under the chairmanship of Circle No. 5. The Circle will serve a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Walter Kesler is chairman for the day.

Following the luncheon the regular business meeting is to be held. Among other topics to be discussed will be several reports on the Council's recent activities.

The meeting will conclude with a play "It Could Be You," featuring Mesdames Lois Adami, Pat Wilson and Mary Jack.

Meanwhile, The Rev. William Harberts will return to his congregation this Sunday. He recently spent several days in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he attended the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Church Assembly.

Music Program Announced

The nationally famous "Gararden's Musical Group" will be at the Assembly of God church this Friday evening, it was announced today.

The program will get underway at 7:45 o'clock at the church, Evergreen and Hanover streets.

A full musical evening is planned, with Ralph Silva on the accordian being the star feature of the evening.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

District To Hold Special Meeting

Any local questions on PTA summer programs or finance may be brought by unit officers or chairmen to a special session of Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. G. J. Sirex of San Carlos, president, has called the meeting for 9:30 a.m. Monday, June 11, in the Burlingame High school Little Theatre.

District officers and chairmen are requested to be present, since this is the last opportunity before the summer recess to distribute departmental information. No "Seventeena" newsletter will be issued until September.

"One God," the film presenting a plea for religious and racial tolerance, will be shown at 11:45 that morning. Nosebag lunches may be brought for the convenience of those viewing the movie.

PTA datebooks will be on sale, and unit orders can be filled at this time by Mrs. Fred Kullenberg of Millbrae, publications chairman. Final corrections are also due on 1951-1952 Yearbook material from unit and district people.

The largest known sugar pine tree in California is at Dorrington, in Calaveras County.

Automobile registration in San Francisco increased from 187,864 in 1945 to 279,706 in 1950.

San Francisco's Municipal Railway acquired the properties of the Market Street Railway in 1944 for $7,500,000.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER SCHOOL

Room 1

The children of the sixth grade in Room 1 have been studying about aviation. Some of the boys have made model airplanes. Solveig Midtlie dressed a doll as a stewardess and Mary Louise Magnuson dressed a doll as a nurse of the airlines.

Some of the boys have been making a mural telling the story of the air from the time of the first balloon to the present time. The class is very much interested and are enjoying this social studies unit.

Room 3

In Room 3 the fifth grade has been completing their study of California today. This past week we have studied a special short unit on Transportation.

Last Friday we had an interesting lesson on color. Using water colors, we mixed the three primary colors until we had made all the secondary colors. Using a compass we each made a color wheel which showed the relationship of the different colors.

Room 4

The sixth grade in Room 4 recently had a special speech lesson with Miss Belli, the Speech Supervisor. The class concentrated on improving their use of such words as "just" and "get" and words ending in "ing."

Many boys and girls who really know better are careless when speaking and correct speech habits are very important.

Room 5

Sharon Ausano is moving to Millbrae during the summer. Archie Snider is moving to San Mateo.

Room 6

Last week the sixth grade had a special lesson in printing from Mrs. Kagan. We are now learning to print signs.

We have begun the study of percentage in arithmetic and are now working on interest. The class is really enjoying it.

COLMA SCHOOL

The seventh graders in room 6 are studying about plagues; such as, yellow fever, bubonic plague, malaria, typhoid fever, and cholera. We are learning about the scientists who worked to solve the mysterious causes of these diseases.

The pupils in room 3 have learned that Stephen Foster did not live in a home in Kentucky; and that the home in the son "My Old Kentucky Home" belonged to a relative. Foster needed a two-syllabel name of a river to fit into a song, so a map was pared over until the name Swanee River in Florida was found. The name fits perfectly.

Court St. Mary Reports State Conference A Great Success

by Mrs. Arthur Heyden

With the Fourteenth Bienneal State Conference of the Catholic Daughters of America, dedicated to the Cause of Padre Serra, held in Sata Barbara, now past, delegates are busily giving reports on the various workshops, consisting of: confraternity, education, extension, juniors, legislation, public affairs share the faith social welfare and district deputies.

While attending the conference at Santa Barbara members attended Mass and Holy Communion in two outstanding Catholic churches, the Mt. Carmel church, in Montecito, with Rev. Thomas J. Bowe, state chaplain, as celebrant, and Our Lady of Sorrows church in Santa Barbara, with 50C Catholic Daughters receiving Communion. After, a breakfast banquet was held in the Santa Barbara Biltmore, Miss Ethel Felix, State Treasurer, presiding and giving an illustrated lecture on the life of Padre Serra.

Another interesting highlight of the conference was a stirring address by Rev. Noel Moholy, O.F.M., S.T.D., American Administrator, Cause of Padre Serra, a pioneer who contributed largely to the wealth and expansion of the State of California.

Congratulations should be extended to State Regent Mrs. Timothy M. Maloney of San Francisco, State Secretary Mrs. Milson C. Weckerle, Daly City, other State Officers and Court Santa Barbara, in their efforts toward making the conference such a great success, with the Mission Inn, Riverside, Calif., selected as the host city for next year's State Convention.

Members for Court St. Mary, Daly City, were: State Regent, Mrs. Milton C. Weckerle; Grand Regent (Delegate), Mrs. Richard J. Ennis; Vice Regent, Mrs. Rose McNab; Historian, Mrs. Christine Stephenson; Public Relations, Mrs. Arthur Heyden; Organist, Mrs. Fred J. Wettstein; Mrs. Evelyn Reynolds and Miss Elizabeth Wettstein.

Blazing Transformer Blacks Out Daly City

Those who were up and about between 12:40 a.m. and 1:20 a.m. Wednesday morning were aware of a power cut off in certain sections of Daly City and Colma.

The black out came following a short circuit in a PG&E transformer on the Old San Pedro Road near Junipero Serra Highway.

The blazing pole fire was extinguished by the Colma Fire Department, and power was restored 30 minutes after the fire.

Giant Whist Game Slated For June 8

Another big whist game will be held at the Eagles Hall, 3346 San Jose Avenue, on Monday, June 18, at 8 p.m.

Bigger and more prizes are on the card in order to assure a huge crowd. The whist game is under the direction of the delegates to the State Convention who in past years have given better than average games. This is no ordinary whist so be on hand to take home your share of the awards.

James Snell PTA Installs Officers For Coming Year

In one of the most colorful and lovely ceremonies of the season, the James L. Snell PTA installed its officers for the years 1951-1952.

The officers for the coming year are President, Mrs. Hugh Falconer; Vice-President, Mrs. Kenneth Meitz; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Larry Green; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. John Hess; Treasurer, Mrs. Louis Manis; Honorary Vice-President, Miss Aileen Suber; Parliamentarian, Mrs. J. MacEachern; Historian, Mrs. Robert Shreve. The installing officer was Mrs. H. P. Eder, District Parliamentarian.

Keynoting the ever present interest in education generally, a panel discussion was held following the installation, in which a panel including four teachers and two parents answered questions put to them, through Mr. James L. Snell as moderator, by the parents of the District, who had, previous to the meeting, submitted the questions. After the question and answer period the meeting was thrown open to questions from the floor, which were answered by the panel at large.

Panel members were Mesdames Shields, Gómez, and Zenovich, Miss Aileen Suber, all of the teaching staff of the Garden Village School, and Mr. Hugh Falconer and Col. Geo. Irvine. A lively interest in discussions of this kind displayed a definite need in any school district for closer liaison between teacher and parent.

After the business at hand was completed, the Sixth Grade Room Mothers served refreshments, in the form of a beautifully decorated cake, on which appeared a replica of the Seal of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Entertainment was beautifully furnished by Mrs. Geo. Freeland, who sang, accompanied by Mrs. Ramon Gómez, "Loch Lomond," "Ye Banks and Braes O' Bonnie Doon," and "Annie Laurie."

CTA Installs New Officers at Meet

The Fox Hostess House on Balboe Street in San Francisco was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on Tuesday, May 29th. The occasion was the anniversary and installation dinner of the Classroom Teachers Association of Jefferson District.

Mr. Don Pagani, President, introduced the officers for 1951-1952. They are Miss Hester Blaylock, Pres., Mr. Cecil Mitchell, Vice-President, and Mrs. Foula Lamp Sec.-Treas. Miss Blaylock presented gifts to the retiring president Mr. Pagani, and to Mrs. Dora Barker, who is retiring from teaching.

Mrs. Hazel Colwell, Chairman of the evening, had prepared a delightful program which included community singing; soprano solos by Miss Mae Varni, accordion solos by Don Pagani, readings by Mrs. Ethel Hahn and Wm. Tergis, and a very charming puppet show by Mrs. Otha Kinsey. Mrs. Marjorie Shields, and Mrs. Foula Lamp. Mrs. Colwell was also responsible for the beautiful flower arrangements on the table.

Honored guests of the evening were: James L. Snell, Supt.; Hugh Falconer, Gen. Supt.; and Miss June Gross, nurse, all of whom are leaving the district; and Mrs. Dora Barker who is retiring after many years of faithful service. They all have the best wishes of the Association.

DEAR PARENTS

By Jane Keith

I have just finished a book called "White Witch Doctor," by Louise A. Stinetorf, in which a definition of religion so forcibly struck me as being applicable to the training of children, also, that I should like very much to pass it on to you dear parents. Transpose the meaning to "love of children" rather than "love of God" which is religion and you will understand more of what I mean.

"Religion is a curious thing, Ellen. With most people, religious decisions come from the heart. Then there is a phase when it is entirely logical. But if it is to be constructive and endure, it must be mind and heart working together. Faith and logic tempered with mercy."

"Faith and logic tempered with mercy!" - - - a wonderful guidepost for all parents who are parents in any greater sense than the mere giving of birth to a child, but one which is posted by a mighty rocky road! A road, I might add with some bitterness, which many of uss will tread more readily for our own relationships with the "Boss," say, or our contemporaries than we will for our children!

Our "Boss" holds our job, our security—and that goes for the man who is in business for himself, too, except that there the job itself is what hangs over the head instead of a person in authority. Our contemporaries salve our egos, stimulate our faculties for living—they are as necessary to us as the air we breathe and with them—as with the Boss—we are most apt to use "faith and logic tempered with mercy" to the very best of our ability! But, in this daily billiard game of adult relationships our children too often wind up behind the "eight ball!"

Many a "Junior" has received a man's sized spanking around dinner time for doing exactly what made his mother or father laugh in the morning—no doubt he has also been drenched with mother's tears and fond pats a few moments later as he sobbed in his bed, but is that the sort of thing you call "faith and logic tempered with mercy?" "In a pig's eye!" I say, yet I have heard many a mother and father explain such an action in just such terms.

If you wish your children's lives to be constructive and to endure, you must in turn be constructive and yes, enduring, in your daily life with and training of, those children! Remember that to your child you are security and love and a fountainhead of wisdom. It is up to you, as parents, to keep that opinion—"Status quo!"

Westlake Extension Traffic Work Near End

Work on traffic islands and signals at Junipero Serra and the Westlake Alemany extension is expected to be completed early next week.

George T. McCoy, state highway engineer, said this job, and the one on Skyline and Alemany, will cost approximately $116,000.

The final division of the job will be the extension of Knowles Avenue, by the city, to connect Westlake with the center of Daly City. This work is scheduled to begin in the near future.

Set Date For Post Office "Ole Hoss" Sale

Postmaster John F. Fixa today announced that the annual "Ole Hoss" sale of unclaimed merchandise handled in the mails will be conducted at the Main Post Office, 7th and Mission streets, starting on Tuesday, June 19, 1951 and continuing until the last lot of merchandise is sold to the highest bidder.

On sale this year will be approximately 6,000 lots of merchandise, totaling about 50,000 individual articles. These articles were sent to the San Francisco post office from other post offices in California, Nevada, Arizona, Utah, the far off islands of the Pacific and the Army and Navy post offices in the Pacific theatres of defense operation.

A variety of items including watches, rings, bracelets, silverware, new and used clothing for men, women and children nylon hosiery, auto tires, toys, musical instruments, cameras and other miscellaneous items of merchandise will be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

A display of many of the articles to be auctioned will be presented on Monday, June 18 at the Main Post Office from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. The actual sale will start on Tuesday, June 19 and will continue each day from 8:30 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. until the last article is sold.

Crocker PTA Gives Grads Party Friday

Under the direction of Mrs. T. M. Mullen, president and Mrs. A. Vranich, vice president, the Crocker Parent Teachers Association is giving the class of June, 1951, graduates a party on Friday evening, June 8, at Castle Hall in Colma.

The evening will be spent in games and dancing, and refreshments will be served.

Family Day Scout Gathering Held Last Sunday

The "parent-sponsored" Boy Scout Troop No. 249 Family-Day picnic at San Mateo Memorial State Park, June 3, was a success, having a 90 percent attendance.

As in the past, fathers were soon taking over the baseeball diamond but after much persuasion, the sons were allowed to participate and the mothers were racking their brains to recall whether there was a full bottle of liniment on the family shelf for that nights aching muscles.

Bingo, cards and horseshoes were called, dealt and pitched by the more quite participants. Crayfish were caught by the gross.

A thoroughly enjoyable time was had by every one and many friendships formed.

This is one of the few Boy Scout of America Troops in the Bay Area not sponsored by a club or an association. Through the efforts of the parents with whist games, cake sales and the combined work of Scouts and parents with paper drives, money is raised.

The proceeds are used to promote overnight camping trips, purchase troop equipment and provide for Family Day gatherings.

Applications for the Summer Camps have been distributed. Remember, it is necessary for each Scout to have a physical examination to attend a camp. Check with your physician for an appointment.

Beginners' First Aid Class Opens Tuesday

A beginners' class in first aid is scheduled for next Tuesday, June 12, at the Old No. 4 Fire House, 220 Peoria, Dean Woods announced today.

The classes will be held for nine weeks, conclusion of which the students will be given a Red Cross certificate for first aid.

Under the supervision of Bert Merrit, the classes begin at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

San Francisco Women Of Moose Meet June 14

San Francisco Chapter, No. 739, Women of the Moose will hold a regular meeting on Thursday, June 14, 8:15 p. m. in the I.O.O.F. Hall.

Election of officers for the coming year will take place. Also special initiation of new members.

Refreshments will be served.

Jeff's Ed Cereghino Named Peninsula Athletic League's 'Player of the Year'

Ed Cereghino represents Jefferson High on the 1951 All-Peninsula Athletic League baseball team, selected by the peninsula sportswriters.

Besides getting an all-star berth, Cereghino was named unanimously the P.A.L.'s "Player of the Year." He won the honor without any opposition vote.

Although he had only a 4-2 record for the regular season, Cereghino rose to heights in the playoffs to win four more and lead the Jeffs to the title. In the playoffs he gave up 11 hits in the four games.

In pitching 6 innings in the PAL this season, he struck out 116, while giving up 32 hits and 11 walks. Of the 12 runs scored off of him, only three were earned.

For the whole season he won 12, lost three and tied one. In 110 innings he fanned 184, walked 27, and allowed 53 hits. His game average was 11. strikeouts, 3.4 hits and 1.7 walks. His earned run average was a phenominal .764.

The big righthander was also the Indians leading batter with a .333 average.

Only six seniors made the all-star teams this year, which will make next season one of the best yet. Rounding out the club are six juniors and one freshman, San Mateo's sensational shortstop, Billy Cox.

Jeff's Charlie Donley, who pitched several games for the Indians this year, was the choice for the second team first baseman. He batted .143.

Catcher Bryon McMahon, Shortstop Leo Gianecchini and Left Fielder Mansel Roland, all of Jefferson, received honorable mention.

The first team:

INDIANS WIN SECOND STRAIGHT "PAL" TITLE

Cereghino Paces Wins Over Mateans

Glen South's Jefferson High ball club is the toast of Daly City this week. Last Saturday it won its second straight P.A.L. crown.

Hero of the pennant drive was hurler Ed Cereghino, who won three games in eight days. In those three game he allowed only one run and six hits.

The Jeffs had to stage a brilliant comeback to cop the title this year. They entered the playoffs nestled in third place with a 7-2 record.

In the playoffs, they first knocked off Sequoia High, which shared first place with San Mateo High. Cereghino won both games of the best two-out-of-three games series. He won the first, 7-2, on a four hitter, and then won the third game of series, 5-0, with a three hit white wash job.

Meantime while the Jeffs were defeating Sequoia, San Mateo took two straight from Willow Glen to enter the finals also.

In championship series' opener, Cereghino set back the Mateans, 5-0, with a one hit performance, his second victory in the eight day span.

San Mateo copped the second contest, to send the series into the third game Saturday at San Mateo.

Cereghino was again the Indians' mound choice and he came through with an excellent two-hitter, to give the Jeffs the crown. The Big right hander fanned 11 batters while walking only one hitting another with a pitch ball.

On top of this, he banged out two for three at the plate, driving in a run.

Threatening in the first two frames, the Jeffs finally got to starter Dave Messick for three runs in the third inning. After Don Wilson walked to open the inning, Mansel Roland bunted, and all hands were safe when Messick's peg pulled Gene Staley off of first base. Wilson wound up on third base. Messick seemingly got himself out of trouble by fanning the next two batters, but then the bottom fell out on him.

After Roland stole second, Mario Leveroni singled past short to drive in two runs, and advanced to second on the throw in. Cereghino aided his own cause with a sharp single to send Leveroni home.

The Jeffs added insult to injury in the sixth frame with two more tallies. Bryon McMahon led off with a single through the box, but later was forced at second by Charlies Donley. Izzy Galent laid down a bunt, and relief hurler Marv Lamson threw to second, but too late.

Wilson kept things going by picking up his third straight walk. That was all for Lamson, and Dick Matlock came to the mound. Roland greeted Matlock with a neat bunt that squeezed in Donley for the first run of the inning. Matlock then uncorked a wild pitch to the screen scoring Galente. Wilson was out trying to sneak in from second on the play to end the inning.

The Mateans scored their only run in their half of the frame. With one out, Matlock singled to center. Third Sacker Wilson then bobbled a grounder to put two men on. They executed a double steal, and Matlock checked in on a fly ball.

The other bearcat hit came in the fourth when San Mateo's sensational freshman shortstop Bill Cox doubled down the left field line and was caught trying to stretch it into a triple.

The title going to Jeff is a tribute to South who kept his well balanced club on its toes throughout the campaign. Cereghino was the only Indian to make the all-P.A.L. team. Only one other, Donley, made the second team.

It's unusual for a championship ball club to be left out so completely on an all-star team. But maybe that is why they won the title, they worked as a team.

Locals Battle Park Presidio In Summer League Inaugural

Gelsi's Liquors will open its summer league season with a new name 2 p m. Sunday when it battles Park Presidio at Marchbanks Park. The club will be called Vincent-Fred's Liquors.

In its last outing as Gelsi's, the local nine dropped a 4-1 decision to Pomona Tile, which also changed its name recently. It was formerly Mike Chiono's.

The locals could get only two hits off the offerings of Stan Sherwood.

Food Problem For Country Becoming Acute

JUNE 7. (CNS)—Military food requirements, plus a rapidly expanding population, have created a food problem and both factors show the reason for the need of tremendous farm production this year.

In a bulletin received by state agricultural authorities, the United States Department of Agriculture stresses five reasons why the nation's farmers, particularly those in California, must produce to the limit. They are:

1. The United States will have a population of more than 200,000,000 in another quarter century and the nation must eat well.

2. Military food requirements involve strategic stockpiles of food and only by increased production can the military be supplied and civilians have plenty to eat.

3. Defense production has forced food prices out of line and only by producing plenty can these prices be kept at a normal level.

4. While tanks, guns and planes are important in the battle against communism, food is even more important and the nation with the greatest food reserve will be victorious.

5. National safety lies in storing great amounts of food, principally grains, so that Americans may be safeguarded against the hazards of weather and other crop risks.

Prices must remain high enough to encourage, but not too high to discourage consumption. A perfect balance would provide a safe economy level, the department said.

TROUT LIMITS TAKEN

Many trout limits have been taken during the past week from Ross Reservoir, Hunters Dam, and San Antone Creek in Calaveras County, reports the National Automobile Club. Some of these fish have been running up to eighteen inches in length.

SPORTS

ON THE OTHER HAND...

By Bob Quinlan

Money will be flowing freely once again in Daly City come next week. Not since the gold rush days will it be thought of so lightly.

No, gold hasn't been discovered in the American River again. Ed Cereghino is graduating from high school.

Representatives from every major league ball club will come here in swarms, bringing their treasury with them. After three years of waiting patiently and licking their chops, they will be able to bid on the open market for the future services of Cereghino.

Cereghino is slated to get the largest bonus ever paid a prep athelete in these parts. With the abandonment of the bonus rule recently, the trend has been towards paying fabulous sums to "bonus babies." No longer are bonus players required to stick with the club they signed with during their second year, even if they are not ready for the majors.

A few weeks ago the Cleveland Indians went over board in signa prep star from North Carolina. It has been estimated that the youth received from 100 to 150 thousand dollars. Cereghino will not hit that mark, but he will not lag too far behind.

The father of the Jefferson High star, E. J. Cereghino of 412 Willits Street, has stated that he hopes to get a hundred grand for the boy. He expects the bidding to start at $60,000.

The 6-2, 210 pound hurler is worth it. Regarded as the top ball player ever to come out of the peninsula, he has led Jefferson to two successive P.A.L. championships.

Battling for the title this year, Cereghino won three playoff games in eight days, allowing a total of one run and six hits.

In one game he was robbed out of a no-hitter. It was the first contest of the best two-out-of-three series with San Mateo, with the title at stake. The blow in question came in the sixth frame when a Bearcat drove a grounder to the right of Cereghino who got his glove on it, but could not hold it. The ball rolled past him, and the shortstop could not make a play.

San Mateo being the home team, scored it as a hit, but had the game been played at Jefferson, it would have ben chalked up as an error.

The big right hander has that quality you seldom find in a youngster, control. This has been the top drawback among most young hurlers, but not Cereghino. This season he has averaged something like one or two bases on balls per game.

Cereghino first caught the eyes of big league scouts when he was only 14 years old. He was twirling for Mike Chiono's whiz kids. With the grace and composure of and old pro, he swept past all that faced him, including men with years of experience.

That year he appeared in a relief role in the Examiner baseball school all-star game, and stole the show. However, since he was only 14 and had a couple of years of competition left, the trip east was awarded to another boy.

We're hoping the New York Yankees win the bid for him. The Yanks have local boys in the outfield, in the infield and behind the plate, but not on the mound. It's a cinch Cereghino would never hurt the bay area's prestige back there.

Another thing, if he signs with the Yankees. They might send him to San Francisco for seasoning. Heaven knows the Seals could use him.

Local fans, who missed seeing Cereghino perform this season because the games were played in the day, will have their chance Friday night. He is going to hurl for the East Bay prep stars in the Ninth Annual East Bay-West Bay all-star game in Seals Stadium.

A dynamic pitching duel is in the offing when Cereghino goes against Sacred Heart's Willie Franco, the pride of San Francisco.

When Walt Williams left San Jose High to take over the baseball coaching chores at San Jose State, he brought with him one of his brightest prospects, Joe Bonfiglio.

However, for three years Bonfiglio never turned out for baseball at State. He finally made an appearance this year and batted close to .300.

It wasn't until a week ago that Wiliamsl found out what kept his prospect from turning out those first three years. Bonfiglio, a biological science student, startled the scientific world by discovering a Trachykele Hartmani Burke—which, by the way, is not a newer edition of Tinkers to Evers to Chance, but a kind of beetle, that has been found only three times before in the entire world.

Champions Battle At Livermore Rodeo

Purple Heart Vets Lead Parade Saturday

It will be a battle royal between world's champions, ex-champions, and near-champions at this year's Livermore Rodeo Saturday and Sunday, June 9 and 10. Gene Rambo, world's all-around champion cowboy, will be there to defend the title he has held for three consecutive years.

Champion Rambo will be seriously challenged by several outstanding ex-champions, including Clay Carr, who held the championship from 1930 to 1933, and Bill Linderman, a more recent champ.

Homer Pettigrew, present world's champion bulldogger, will find plenty of exciting competition among several younger near-champions. Sandra Black, world's youngest trick rider—she is only 6—will be there defending her title and Slim Pickens, noted rodeo clown, will make a return appearance after an absence of three years.

The Livermore Rodeo, billed as "the world's fastest," will start at 1:30 p.m. The big show will be preceded by a mammoth downtown Old West parade at 10 a.m. Saturday. This procession will be unique in that it will be led by four Purple Heart veterans of the current Korean war, as grand marshals, with Marie Marciel, Queen of this 34th annual celebration.

The four wounded veterans will be: Hospital Corpsman David LeMay of the U. S. Navy; Pfc. Robert C. Garrett of the Army, Private John B. Martin of the Air Force and John J. Murphy of the Marine Corps.

Another feature of the Livermore Rodeo will be a gay carnival and street dance Saturday night.

Pack 36 Cubs Wind Up Baseball Season As Summer Vacation Nears

by Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

The season for the "B" teams is over.

And this is also about the end of the line for all teams as summer and vacations approach. Last Saturday, Pack 36 played a winning game against Pack 43, to take third place and win for themselves a cup. By winning this game they also are allowed three players on the all-star team. If they had lost only two players could be picked from Pack 36. The three boys elected from Pack 36 to play in the all-star game next Saturday at McCoppin Park, are Jerry Rosenberg, Larry Caratti, and Mike Linderman. Nice going boys!

Play Off Set

The National League and the American League will have a play off game preceding the all-star game at McCoppin Park, for the West of Twin Peaks Championship for soft ball. After this game and before the all-star game is played, cups will be awarded.

Cubs of Pack 36 will be treated to a baseball party this Saturday at Seal's Stadium, at 1:30 p.m., between the Seals and Portland. Cubs, meet in front of St. Francis Church, in full uniform, at 12:30 p.m. There will be plenty of refreshments on hand for all Cubs, so please do not bring any money, except emergency money for car fare in case you get separated from your parents.

Committeemen definitely request Cubs not to bring spending money. Please, parents, honor this request. The reason is that all Cubs should be on an equal footing so far as spending money is concerned, at the game. Parents are invited too, but, of course, will pay their own way.

Dinner Plans

June 9th will be the day of the annual spaghetti dinner for Cubs who played baseball, and their parents. The dinner will be held at Coach Al Rosenberg's home, 973 Brunswick St. Last year this was a gala affair and promises to be even better this year. At least there will be a larger crowd, if that makes it better. Last year, if you remember, the Cubs, who were the guests of honor, turned the tables and served the parents and did the clean up chores. Nice kids, those Cubs.

Members of the Knot Hole Club can get season passes to Seals Stadium for Wednesdays and Saturdays at the Taraval Police Station. If they are out, try other stations, boys. Ingleside was reported out of passes at last Pack meeting.

Awards

Awards were made at last Pack meeting to the following boys in Den 16: Larry Caratti, Bill Pfiefer, Blair Forbes, Jerry Tylenda, Peter Lindstrom, Jimmy Garlack, Larry Linda Ronie Rivers and Jerry Irwin. Chief Denner: Jerry Tylenda, Assistant, Ronnie Rivers.

The light touch was achieved at last Pack meeting by Cub Master Smith giving each boy a baloon and telling him to blow and blow until he thought the baloon was as big as his head. Some of the boys must have had "the big head" for sure, for they kept right on blowing till the balloons popped. The fathers were given string to tie ankles, and balloons to the boys' each remaining balloon to the boys' ankles, and baloons were popping right and left the rest of the evening.

Mrs. Anne Ingersoll will take over Den 16 for a few months.

Measles Strike County For Week

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

We have one item this week that I feel deserves top billing. Mrs. Dearie Erceg, of 389 Oriente St., is gone right now, and by this time she should be in New York. She has spent several bad months, in the attempt to get her sister to the United States from Yugoslavia. Their currency is no good at a steamship ticket office, so Dearie couldn't send the money from here, because it would be turned into Yugoslavian coin before it reached her sister. She had to deal with the Yugoslavian ship company by remote control as it were, and it was no easy task. After much red tape and delay, she finally received word that her sister would be given passage on a ship to America. Many more long weeks went by before she was notified of when she would leave for here, and even that date was uncertain.

At long last, just a few days ago, Dearie received word that her sister would arrive in New York on June 9. Her name is Agata Degirolamo, she is forty-five years old, and this is the first meeting of the two sisters in twenty-nine years. We are all happy for you Dearie, and we warmly welcome another member of your family to the community, as well as to our country.

Fire Call

Residents of Bayshore can expect to hear the fire siren a bit oftener now than during the winter months. The grass in the lots is drying out, and although the boys at the fire house tell us that the youngsters hereabouts are more than good about not starting grass fires, there still remains the careless smokers. Watch those butts, and where you throw them. It will save a lot of wear and tear on the neighbors' nerves.

Vacation Bible School will open at the Baptist Church on June 18. The school will be open for two weeks, from 9 to 11:30 in the morning. The youngsters will have singing, Bible lessons, Bible drills, and handiwork, which in the older groups will include the making of hand puppets and a walkie talkie.

The Baptist Church also had their departmental graduation last week, and some fifty children took part, complete with a procession, graduation hats, and diplomas. This Sunday is promotion day in the church for Sunday School members.

Girl Scouts

The Intermediate Troop No. 43 of the Girl Scouts, headed by Mrs. C. Doty of 9 Iwo Jima St., in Midway, gave a mother and daughter diner on June 4. The dinner took place at six in the evening, at the Administration Blyg., and thirteen girls and ten mothers were present. The girls prepared all the food, which included spaghetti and meat balls, tossed green salad, fruit salad, stuffed celery and rose radishes, and for desert there was cup cakes and fruit jello. The girls entertained later with singing and dancing, and a wonderful time was had by all. Much credit goes to Mrs. Doty for her time and effort in making this Girl Scout activity the success that we all hope to achieve in working with the youngsters. Our hats are off to you, Mrs. Doty.

The Mr. and Mrs. Club is planning a really big Vacation Dance on June 16. Holiday mood will be the theme, and Carl Alt's ork will be on hand with his always popular music. A ham will be given away at the dance, so come one, come all, and really enjoy yourselves. The dance will be held at the Administration Building in the project, s come early and stay late.

Ford Reunion

The Ford family had a gathering of the clan last Sunday. Relations came from Martinez, Daly City, San Francisco, and other points, to the home of Bert's brother, Mr. C. L. Ford in Los Altos. It was a garden party affair, with a big turkey dinner to top it off. Twenty-two of the relatives were on hand and those covered four generations of the Ford family.

Community Chest Busy Year For

George H. Atkinson, president of the Community Chest of San Mateo county, in discussing the multitude of tasks performed by volunteers serving on Chest and and agency boards and committees throughout the year, and not just at campaign time, referred to the Chest Budget and Admissions Committee, one of the four standing committees, as an example of real civic pride and community loyalty.

Atkinson said that very few people realize that in this committee rests the responsibility of allocating the funds raised each fall, to the twelve agencies which make up the Community Chest of San Mateo county as follows: Boy Scouts of America, Girl Scouts (four councils) Central, Northern, Sequoia and Palo Alto, Catholic Social Service, Children's Health Home, Community Chest of South San Francisco, Council of Social Agencies, Family Service Agency, Peninsula Jewish Community Center, San Mateo County Blood Bank, Woodside Recreational and Youth Activities and Y. M. C. A. (two branches) Peninsula and Sequoia and the U. S. O.

The Budget and Admissions Committee is chairmaned by John D. Bromfield, assisted by Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, Mrs. David Bohanon, Donald Grant, Charles J. Ledwith, C. S. Morris and Glen O. Smallcomb.

The Committee met recently to review the quarterly reports of the agencies, also requests from some of the agencies needing additional funds necessary to complete full operation for the balance of 1951.

One of the toughest parts of serving on this Committee according to Atkinson, is to say "no" to an agency that needs the money badly. It is simply a case of the necessity that the people of San Mateo County must be told the complete story of its Community Chest and the services rendered by the agencies, so that the important job of youth, health and character building programs will be adequately financed in the future and that consideration can be given to other deserving agencies in the Community who seek admission to the Community Chest.

PIPE SPRINGS NATIONAL MONUMENT

Pipe Springs National Monument, one of Arizona's historical and picturesque spots, is reported by the National Automobile Club to have been the scene of many struggles between settlers and outlaws during the early pioneering days.

Sounds like a heap of relatives, but maybe they got along better than my relations do.

The regular meeting of our Water Board last Tuesday night saw the new member of the board sworn in. Mr. Vincent Morris vacated the chair and it was filled by Jimmie Mills. Mr. Les Parker declared the chairman's chair vacant and Bert Ford and Jim Mills moved to retain Les Parker again as chairman of the Water Board. Good luck to the new member, and may his troubles be drops in the bucket.

A get-well-quick note to Guy Harrington. We hear Guy had another light stroke. Cut that stuff out chum. Up and at 'em, and let's see you in circulation again soon.

Time Out

This will be the last column that your reporter will put out until the fall. I'm off to the Santa Cruz mountains with my brood, and I will be back the first week in September. Hope you've all enjoyed this last year of Bayshore news in The Record, and that you will look forward to what's going on in the neighborhood again in the fall.

If any of you have any items that you feel would be of interest to the community, give Bill Katz a ring at The Record, Plaza 5-4321 and ask him to give it space. He's a nice guy when his wife feeds him regularly.

Students Prepare For Final Exams

With final examinations starting this Friday at San Mateo Junior College, students and faculty members are already at work on the commencement program which will be presented in the Woodland theatre in Hillsborough, Sunday afternoon, June 17, at 2:30. The public is invited.

Dr. Monroe Deutsch, who retired recently as vice-president of the University of California, will give the graduation address. He will speak on "The debt we owe our nation."

High sophomores who will receive diplomas, have already held several class affairs including their picnic and class field day and are now planning their class luncheon and final formal dance.

The college music department will present its annual spring music festival this Friday evening in the auditorium of the Baldwin Avenue campus in San Mateo. Fredric Roehr and Elmer Young, Jr., are the instructors in charge of the a cappella choir, orchestra and soloists who will present the program. Students in these groups are drawn from the entire county. The public is invited to attend, and no tickets are necessary.

Special graduation exercises for a group of adults completing the ornamental horticulture training program at the junior college will take place June 14 in the Baldwin auditorium at eight o'clock. The graduates have been trained for horticultural occupations and have had 400 hours of class work and 4,000 hours of planned and supervised work experience. Maunsell Van Rensselaer, director of the Santa Barbara Bontanical Garden, will be the main speaker.

Nurses Asked To Register

In cooperation with the National Red Cross and Civil Defense on national, state and local levels, the San Mateo County Chapter, American Red Cross has designated uJne as the month for enrollment of nurses.

The Nursing Services Committee has undertaken to secure a complete roster of all registered nurses, both active and inactive, in the chapter area. Purpose of the enrollment is two-fold: to have a complete roster of nurses for use in case of major disaster in this area and to enable those nurses who wish to do so, to serve the Red Cross in volunteer capacities at the present time.

Nurses are asked to contact the local chapter by calling Red Cross headquarters in Burlingame, DI-3-4561, to leave their names. Miss Elsie Northrop, in charge of the nurse enrollment, will then send enrollment blanks and further information.

Come to Church

Copyright, 1951, by the Holliday Promotion Agency, Box 3146, Rincon P. O., San Francisco, Calif.

Pastor of the Week

Rev. C. E. Rains

The pastor, Rev. C. E. Rains, received his high school training at Shafter, California. He served during the war as a Navy fighter pilot, and continues active with the Naval Reserve. He attended St. Mary's College and Oklahoma Baptist University, graduating from the latter with an A. B. degree. At present he is doing graduate work at the Golden Gate Seminary in Berkeley. He is majoring in the study of the Greek New Testament. The pastor, his wife, and baby daughter live in Oakland.

Sermonette of the Week

"WHAT IS CHRISTIANITY?"

By Rec. C. E. Rains
Pastor
Colma First Baptist Church

It is God's supreme revelation to man. God demonstrated through the history of the children of Abraham that man needed a redeemer and mediator. The whole history of the Israelite nation was an expression and an illustration of this need. Jesus Christ came to be the supreme revelation of God and to enable man to find forgiveness for his sins in a more perfect way.

The religion of Jesus is a way of Life. Christianity is the life of God in the soul of man. It is the process by which man is able to understand himself and to unite himself with the creator of the universe in which he lives.

Through salvation man sees his weakness and the strength of God. Man, through his rejection of baser motives, comes to seek the best in life and aligns himself with the purer motives of society and thereby finds a more perfect expression for his life.

Christianity is a new experience. When one expresses faith in Jesus Christ and trys to follow that faith in seeking to live as Christ lived, he finds he has entered upon a new experience that never grows old.

William Carey found that new experience of service in India serving Christ. David Livingstone found the answer to his life in Africa seeking to enlighten those there.

Jesus taught that we lose our life by rejecting selfishness and greed, but that in eternity we find our life which was given through faith in him.

In Christianity lies the only lasting hope for mankind. History testifies to man's mistakes. Eternity shall witness the providence of God.

Christianity is a religion of personal relationship to God through Christ Jesus. The responsibility and joy of right relationship comes in proportion to the degree to which we have committed ourselves to the life of "Christian" as expressed in the person of Jesus Christ and demonstrated by his contemporary followers.

Church of the Week

First Baptist Church, Colma

August 1950, the First Baptist Church, Colma, was organized; having grown from a mission which was begun by the Home Mission Board in December of the previous year. Colma Community Center on Dunk Street has always been the meeting place. The church not only provides regular worship services but has a Sunday School set up for every member of the family. There is an active Women's Missionary Circle. The church strives to carry out a visitation program. Its members are indebted to its many friends of other denominations who have given so much help and encouragement.

This church, along with others of the San Francisco Bay area will be host to some 15,000 Baptists during the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in San Francisco, June 18 thru June 24th.

Broadmoor Post To Hold Picnic

The Broadmoor Post No. 824 American Legion Annual Summer Picnic will be held this Sunday, rain or shine. The last two years it has been raining or almost raining in Daly City and the sun was shining in Shangri-La, so even the wind and rain will not hold us back. The Legion has spent many dollars for magic balls and crystals for the weatherman to gaze into to prognosticate the weather for the next week end and this is his report—"Could Be."

As an added attraction ice cream will be served by the local "Ice Cream Land" proprietor, Jimmy Denny, who has donated all the ice cream and will deliver it in person. For this Jim has our deepest and most sincere thanks.

Many awards were donated by local merchants, such as the two throw rugs given by "The Rug Man" on School street. Others will be mentioned at the picnic, so come down and see who the merchants are who support the local affairs.

The picnic starts at 8 a. m. so come early and stay late. If you can't get there before lunch, then come in the afternoon and help us folk dance under the able instruction of Ken and Dorothy Sprague. There will be food to eat all afternoon and evening, so just bring the family and join in on the fun. We'll see you there.

More Workers Are Needed For Camp

More volunteer workers are urgently needed to prepare Girl Scout Camp Mattrup in the Colma Hills for summer activities of the San Mateo County girl scouts.

Already a complete fence has been built around the 235 feet of reservoir by Mr. Alley and Mr. McCoy of Sharp Park.

However, there are still further preparations necessary before the first session of the camp opens on July 16, and all those desiring to donate their services are asked to report at the camp Sunday at 10 a. m. Volunteers are to bring lunches and working materials such as hammers, saws or shovels.

The Daly City area girl scouts comprising troops from Colma, Daly City, the coastal strip and Bayshore have been assigned participation at the opening session of the camp which dates are from July 16 through the 19th and from July 23rd through the 26th.

Those desiring further information in regard to working at Camp Mattrup Sunday should call Mrs. Lillian Klingler, PL 5-0573.

Local Man Awarded $7,000 Damages

John Franco of Daly City this week was awarded $7,000 by a San Mateo County Superior Court jury for injuries he suffered in an accident here October 9, 1949.

Defendant in the case was Jerry Horkey, also of Daly City.

Franco claimed he suffered injuries of both knees and bruises of the left ribs when involved in the accident on Mission street near Jefferson High school.

The plaintiff, represented by Thomas L. Bocci, had requested $10,000.

First Son Born To Mr. and Mrs. Lecaro

Proud parents of their first son and heir today are Mr. and Mrs. William Lecaro. Mrs. Lecaro is the former Peggy Hanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hanley, 43 Woodrow Street.

The new citizen of the world was born at 11:30 a.m. June 3 at Permanente Hospital. He weighed in at 7 pounds 6 ounces. His parents have named him Richard Alfred, after his father and grandfather respectively.

Social Security Cards Needed

Social security numbers should be secured by students now preparing for summer jobs, and by other persons now coming under social security for the first time.

Household workers who work on the average of twice a week for the same family should have cards so their employers may report their wages properly.

Also, full time farm workers need cards as they too are brought under social security this year for the first time.

Self-employed persons should have cards, although they will not report their earnings for social security until income tax time early in 1952.

The San Mateo Social Security office at 42 North B Street issues original cards replacements of lost cards, and reissues cards when the name has been changed.

It Was A Big Year For State Eggs

JUNE 7. (CNS)—Californians like their eggs, with or without ham, and as a result, egg production in this state last year reached 3,233,000,000 eggs, or eight per cent more than in 1949.

The California crop and livestock reporting service, in a review of poultry activities last year, said that 23,484,000 commercial broilers and fryers were raised in 1950, which was 13 per cent above the 1949 total.

However, the state produced less chickens in 1950, the total being 28,470,000, as compared to 29,968,000 the preceding year and the record year of 34,222,000 in 1943.

Turkey production in 1950 continued large, being slightly under the preceding peak year. The service said 7,035,000 birds were produced last year.

Net returns were a disappointment to growers, the report indicated. Turkeys dropped $1 per bird under the 1949 price. Chicken returns dropped to the lowest price since 1942. Only prices of broilers and fryers remained high.

The original United States Customs House at Benicia is still standing and is used as a residence.

HOLY MEN CLASH . . . Thousands of sadhus (holy men) from all corners of the globe recently convened in Delhi for a spiritual parliament to pray for peace of the world. The gathering, also called the "world peace conference," was marked by disagreement, even among the holy men, on the meaning of peace and the methods for attaining it. At left a Sadhu is lecturing on orthodox ideas. At right, a visiting holy man is giving his discourse on the modern way to peace.

Special Deer Hunt Near Grass Valley

Final approval of a special hunting season on antlerless deer in Nevada County has been given by the California Fish and Game Commission as the result of a public hearing held earlier in Grass Valley.

Severe losses to farm and orchard crops in the Grass Valley area caused local landowners to request the special hunt. No more than 350 antlerless deer will be removed during the last two weeks of the regular open hunting season in the area.

Beginning at 9 a.m., September 10, permits will be sold for $1 each on a first come, first served basis at the Veterans Memorial Building in Grass Valley.

Declaration of the special season follows a year-long survey made in the area by game managers of the Division of Fish and Game. The survey was requested by local sportsmen's groups and the Sacramento-Sierra Sportsmen's Council.

Fish and Game Commissioner William J. Silva, who conducted the Grass Valley hearing, reported that farmers and sportsmen of the area were overwhelmingly in favor of reduction of the local deer herd.

MAINLY FROM THE MAIL

by Ridgely Cummings

Here are some history-making nuggets sifted from studio publicity handouts. I've been in Hollywood long enough now to get on the mailing lists.

Van Heflin, star of Paramount's "My Son John," is a spare-time student at UCLA, working on a master's degree.

I saw Mr. Heflin at a radio studio recently and give him credit for courage. He looked quite mature, no relation to Victor. A lot of people who would like to pick up a Ph.D. are scared off the campuses by wise cracks from the youngsters. Glad to see VH isn't.

Buddy Baer will portray the giant in "Jack and the Bean Stalk," a forthcoming color film. Lou Costello is cast as Jack and Bud Abbott will be the man who sold him the beans.

Dog's Friend

A quote from Chili Wills, who was the mule's voice in the picture "Francis" and who feels called upon to defend animals in films:

"The dog Asta had as many fans in the 'Thin Man' series as Bill Powel or Myrna Loy. And what would the 'Blondie' series be without the pooch Daisy?"

A good question indeed.

The "African Queen" has started sailing down the river in the Belgian Congo, with passengers Humphrey Bogart and Katharine Hepburn. That's another direct quote. The release doesn't specify what river or what type of vessel is making the voyage, though I doubt that it is a sailboat.

Charlita, who appeared in "The Brave Bulls," will act a native belle in "Ten Tall Men," Burt Lancaster starrer.

I saw the curvesome Charlita at a luncheon the other day. She was dressed in Hawaiian costume and went up to the speaker's table to pose for photos with Gabriel Pascal, Jeanne Simmons and Mel Ferrer, who were also present.

Leg Puller

A Columbia pictures director, Frank Tashlin, has written three books reputed to be best sellers. I hadn't heard of them before, although I'm a confirmed bookstore browser, but here are the titles: "The Bear That Wasn't," "The Possum That Didn't," and "The World That Isn't." I wonder if Publicity Man Lou Smith is pulling a leg that ain't.

Lyle Talbot and the durable Johnny Weissmuller have signed for a film called "Jungle Jim in the Forbidden Land." One of my favorite Hollywood characters, a Samoan stunt man named Kuka, has been working in the Jungle Jim series.

Universal-International is making "Hollywood Story" but Director William Castle explains that Hollywood Boulevard itself had to be rebuilt on the lot because it is not what it used to be.

No Class

I don't know how the boulevard used to look but it is sadly lacking in class these days. What with hot dog stands and all-night movies, all it needs is a flea circus to look like Broadway.

Tony Curtis, star of "The Prince Who Was a Thief," is getting buildup treatment. The studio says he is rooming with Marlon Brando to learn acting. Brando will play the lead in "Streetcar Named Desire" for Warner's soon.

Well, that's enough from the mail for this time. Next week, a real column, genuinely handwritten.

Keeping Your Wardrobe Intact

By Anne Gary—ANS Features

Your warm-weather wardrobe is sure to include at least one of those lovely chalk-white nylon blouses, and several pairs of frothy white nylon gloves . . . they're so cool and fresh-looking, so easy to wash and quick to dry. And white nylon slips and panties are a summer "must."

If numerous tubbings should turn them yellow, however, there's no need to fret—for a new preparation, called Whitex, will restore them to their former whiteness easily and inexpensively. Though identified on the package as a bluing, this product is not an ordinary bluing or bleach, in that it works on synthetic fabrics, like nylon and acetate rayon, and on silk and wool, which ordinary blusings won't whiten effectively.

Summer magic . . .

Whitex is harmless to the sheerest fabrics . . . it won't stain your hands . . . nor settle to the bottom of the vessel. Directions for its use are simple. You just wash and rinse your blouse, slip, or any other wearable . . . dissolve one-fourth to one-half of the product for each gallon of hot water required . . . then dip article into the solution, as with ordinary bluing. Then presto—like magic—it's new-looking and white again.

Don't throw away those unmatched stockings, either . . . you'll find that with the use of a stocking dye, you can come up with several "new" pairs. So, gather together all those hosiery "bachelors," and follow these simple directions, suggested by the Tintex Home Economics Bureau.

The first step is to remove enough of the old color to enable you to re-dye. Do this with a color remover—available at all-fabric dye counters in department, drug and variety stores. No boiling is required, so it's safe for nylon, rayon and other man-made fabrics. Then re-dye your hosiery with the stocking dye—no boiling is needed for this, either. These dyes come in six light and four dark shades—all the season's fashion-approved colors. You can tintex your dark-colored winter hosiery, also, to one of the warm lighter shades—using color remover first to prepare stockings for dye-bath. And re-dyeing your hosiery is a real money-saver, since a single box contains enough dye for many pairs.

Banish hosiery "bachelors" . . .

CALIFORNIA LAST WEEK

The Governor spent most of the week on the flood of bills poured into his office by the state legislature; vetoed several, including one which would have permitted public officers in the contracting or mercantile business to contract with themselves and characterized the measure as one which would permit private interest to conflict with public duty; took time out during the evenings to entertain members of the assembly at the mansion.

The Legislature: The assembly became embroiled in an internal battle over a proposed change in assembly rules which would have permitted election, rather than appointment of the powerful rules committee. Charges were made that lobbyists were doing everything in their power to kill off the proposed change, which would require they deal with seven, instead of one individual.

The Memorial Day holiday slowed down operations somewhat, but work progressed on the state budget, which should soon be on the floor of the state senate, the assembly having already passed the billion dollar plus document. Legislators are anxiously waiting passage of the budget to determine what will happen to special appropriation bills, and economy minded members are bringing the budget as close to the finish line June 23 as is possible to avoid action on a flood of the special measures.

Miscellaneous: California Toll Bridge Authority recommended and laid plans to buy the San Mateo-Hayward and Dumbarton bridges, repair the bridges, and reduce tolls, financing through a bond issue.

Beauty Tips for Teens

—By TONI WOODWARD
ANS Features

Does damp weather make your hair droop? Can you come out smiling from a swim, with curly locks to tempt your best beau? If you can't answer "yes" to these questions, says Katherine Potter, Beauty and Grooming expert for Procter & Gamble, you'd better take time to give yourself a permanent, because you can't just let your hair go hang. For nothing spoils good times or good looks more than stringy, shapeless hair, yet day in and day out hair setting gets to be a bore. The growing importance of home permanents on the beauty scene directs our attention to new features and improvements in wave kits. There's one, for example, which comes with a unique plastic turban. The purpose of the turban, the experts say, is to make sure that all your hair has the same bouncy curl. You wrap it around your head after curls are wound to keep the air out and prevent evaporation. Being plastic, it doesn't absorb the curling solution from the hair; also, it keeps hair at an even (body) temperature during the curling process. Don't worry about frizz, either, for the new solutions give the same soft, smooth curl to hair ends as to top hair. But a permanent wave isn't a permanent hairdo, reminds Miss Potter. You'll have to set your hair. With a good permanent, however, once after each shampoo should be enough.

Plastic turban helps keep curling solution from evaporating.

Let Children Prepare a Meal

By NANCY COOK—ANS Features

Parents can be so preoccupied with providing children the latest, scientifically-tested advantages, that at least one of the old-fashioned virtues is often neglected. We mean the simple, yet rewarding experience of giving, which has somehow been reserved for grownups. It's time we stopped hoarding this pleasure.

Mrs. Winifred S. Carter of Procter and Gamble's Household Information Service, suggests that, on special occasions or specified "let-mother-rest" days, children can have the joy of doing something for others by preparing a dinner themselves. The menu at right is recommended as suitable for children over eight. It can be prepared with little help, though most youngsters will need a hand with the cake—particularly with separation of eggs and mixing directions. But mothers, please . . . remember to "help," not take over, and make the festive part of the meal real fun for everyone.

DINNER MENU:
Tomato juice
Hamburger patties
Baked potatoes
Carrot and celery sticks
Spring cake
Beverage

SPRING CAKE
(makes two 9-inch layers)

Measure into mixing bowl:
2 cups sifted cake flour
1½ cups sugar
½ cup Crisco
1 teaspoon salt
⅔ cup milk

Stir in:
3 teaspoons double acting baking powder (4½ teaspoons if tartrate type)

Add:
⅓ cup milk
4 egg yolks
1 teaspoon lemon extract

Blend thoroughly by hand or mixer (medium speed) for two minutes.

Blend by hand or mixer (medium speed) for 2 minutes. Pour into 2 square 9-inch pans (1¼ in. deep) which have been rubbed with Crisco and lined with heavy waxed paper. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) for about 30 minutes.

Use any favorite icing, but Mrs. Carter suggests a simple "confectioners' sugar spread" that the average child can manage. But don't forget that the attention span of youngsters is limited, and it's not fair to expect them to follow through completely. When interest lags, mothers should take over . . . but gracefully, please. Chances are children will have such fun, that there'll be demands for encores throughout the year.

Cross Pilgrimage Slated Sunday

The Annual Pilgrimage to the Prayer Book Cross in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, will start at three in the afternoon of Sunday, June 10th. The Pilgrims will assemble on the path leading north from the Main Drive just east of the waterfall between the Park-Presidio and 25th Avenue entrances.

Being celebrated will be the four hundred second anniversary of the first use of the English Book of Common Prayer on Whitsunday, June 7, 1549, and the three hundred seventy second anniversary of its first use in the Episcopal Diocese of California by the Rev. Francis Fletcher of the Golden Hind, chaplain to Sir Francis Drake, on St. John Baptist's Day, June 24, 1579, in that part of "New Albion" which is now called Marin County.

A short address will be made by the Rev. Randolph C. Miller, Ph.D., of the Church Divinity School of the Pacific. The cantor for the Litany will be the Rev. Eric W. Jackson, rector of Holy

State Committee Vetoes Vet Bonus

JUNE 7. (CNS)—The assembly ways and means committee has put thumbs down on a measure for $350,000,000 veterans bonus, proposed by Assemblyman William H. Rosenthal, Los Angeles, in Assembly Constitutional Amendment 41.

The measure, had it been adopted, would have provided for a bonus up to $500 for 1,500,000 veterans of the Korean war, and of World War II.

Overseas Jobs Now Available

The United States Army is inviting 2300 civilians to accept employment at Army installations in Austria, Germany, Alaska, Okinawa and Japan, according to an announcement made today.

At salaries which range from $2650 to $7600 per year, the Army urgently needs construction and maintenance personnel; communication engineers and technicians; automotive engineers and mechanics; safety engineers, engineering and survey aides; draftsmen, typists and stenographers; librarians, industrial and cost accountants; auditors, storekeepers and warehousemen; property and supply clerks; tabulating machine operators; economists and public health physicians. Civilian personnel in Alaska and Okinawa receive an additional 25 per cent allowance in pay; and in Japan it is ten per cent.

Transportation will be provided both ways, to successful applicants, and in addition all Army facilities available to military personnel will be furnished to civilian employees who take advantage of the offer.

The approximate cost of living for a civilian employee overseas compares most favorably with the cost of living at home. In Alaska subsistence will cost the single worker $75 per month in Austria and Germany $60.00; in Okinawa $45.00, and in Japan only $35.00. Civilians who sign up for the minimum two-year tour of duty have the opportunity to save a very large part of their earnings.

Interested applicants should contact their local U. S. Employment Service Office immediately for further details.

San Francisco Bay Area California Department of Employment offices which will have information for applicants for Army overseas jobs are shown in the following tabulation:

San Francisco: 2nd Floor, Ferry Building.

South San Francisco: 215 Linden Street.

WHAT AVERAGE ANGLER SPENDS ANNUALLY

The average California angler and hunter spends approximately one hundred and sixty-five dollars annually on his sport, according to the National Automobile Club.

Local Army Man At Medical Center

Private William H. Kinsey, son of Mr. John C. Kinsey, Daly City, recently graduated from the Leadership School at the Medical Replacement Training Center of Broke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

The school is designed to give advance training to selected enlisted men who have demonstrated potential ability as leaders.

Courses in the school are designed so that a student will receive the maximum of practical experience and fit himself for the role of a leader in the Army today. Pride in personal appearance, ability to command and perfection in technique of drill, and physical training are emphasized in the school.

Colonel Howard S. McConkie, commanding oficer of MRTC, presented diplomas to the graduates.

Master Transport Plan Requested

JUNE 7. (CNS) — Preparation of a "Bay Area Master Plan" for development of the San Francisco Bay Area transportation requirements, certain features of the Reber Plan, and other needs of the Bay Area, are urged in a report submitted to the assembly Monday by Assemblyman Richard E. Dolwig, San Mateo.

The committee also recommended immediate steps be taken to finance track removal and reconstruction of the lower deck of the San Francisco Bay Bridge.

WALKING AT NIGHT

When you walk at night, don't leave it all up to the motorist, advices the National Automobile Club. Always assume that he can't see you, and walk accordingly. Make it easier for him to see you by wearing or carrying something white. When you walk at night, walk right.

What is claimed to be the smallest post office in the United States is located at Mountain Ranch, Calaveras County.

The report said additional study should be given, and urged the legislature to make such a study possible.

Feather Square Cake

PANTRY-SHELF CAKES, made from ingredients usually kept on hand, give a wide choice of desserts by varying the cake toppings. These toppings are divided into two groups—those that are "baked on"; others, that are "sprinkled on" after the cake is made. Use with instant mixes, or your favorite cake recipe. The "sprinkled on" type makes a homemade dish of unfrosted store-bought cakes. Here are four new cereal-cake-topping recipes for you to try that are crunchy, deliciously different, and easy to make.

"BAKED-ON" TOPPINGS:

Corn Flakes Topping

Roll 1 cup Corn Flakes into fine crumbs, mix with ¼ cup sugar and 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine and ½ teaspoon cinnamon. Sprinkle on top of batter. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Crunchy Molasses Topping

Combine 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, ⅓ cup molasses, ½ cup chopped nutmeats and 1 cup Rice Krispies; mix well. Sprinkle over cake. Bake in moderately hot oven (400°F.) about 30 minutes.

"SPRINKLE-ON" TOPPINGS:

Chocolate Crunch Topping

1½ cups semi-sweet chocolate bits (7 ounce package)
1 cup Rice Krispies

Melt chocolate bits over hot water. Add crisp cereal; stir until well coated. Spread between layers and over top of cake while cake is still warm.

Feather Square Frosting

½ cup confectioner's sugar
4 teaspoons top milk
⅛ teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons nutmeats
½ cup Corn Soya Shreds

(Pictured) Mix sugar, top milk and vanilla. Spread on squares and sprinkle with corn soya shreds and chopped nutmeats.

A HAPPY ANSWER to a luscious lemon meringue pie filling that's never "runny" and requires no cooking, is a failure-proof magic recipe using Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk. (Sweetened condensed milk is a combination of whole milk and sugar "cooked down" to a thick, creamy mixture, and is not to be confused with evaporated milk.)

LEMON MERINGUE PIE

To make the filling, blend together 1⅓ cups (15-ounce can) sweetened condensed milk, ½ cup lemon juice, grated rind of one lemon or ¼ teaspoon lemon extract, and yolks of two eggs. Pour into baked pie shell or crumb crust. Cover with meringue made by beating two egg whites with 4 tablespoons granulated sugar. Bake in moderate oven (325°), 15 minutes or until brown. Chill before serving.

Virtually the entire world production of abrasive garnet comes from New Hampshire and New York.

ANGLING ANGLES by old Hi

Generally, in the summer months, northern pike stir about mostly in early morning and late evening. During the day they seek the cool spots along rocky channels or under grassy banks, and stay quiet.

If the water is calm and the day bright, the pike will show little interest in either bait or lure, but on cloudy and windy days, or after a rainfall, the fish will be more on the move and in a mood to feed.

When the temperature of the water is high, and the pike are deep, trolling is your best bet. The Red Flash wobbler is one of the best pike catchers for lakes and rivers, although a spinner with 6-inch live sucker or 5-inch yellow perch also score heavily. You troll with a "Glasslake" tubular glass casting rod for finest action, moving near the shorelines where the pike hide in shady retreats, with your spoon skimming the bottom.

Attached to your glass rod is a "Hi-bridge" level wind reel and 100 yards of Old Hi's Favorite braided nylon line of 12 pound test, at the end of which is a 12-inch wire leader fastened by a swivel, and another swivel holding the spoon.

When a pike nabs your lure, set the hook firmly in his tough jaw and don't give him any slack line. Let him race, but lead the rascal out away from snags that abound along the weedy and stump-lined shore.

Be sure to tire a big pike completely before drawing him to the gunwhale, then lift him aboard with a net or insert the point of a gaff under the gill-cover and boost him in. Don't slash up his sides or stomach with the gaff; that isn't necessary in landing these fellows. But watch out for a last vigorous lashing, and keep your fingers away from the pike's sharp teeth.

The best sport comes from plug or fly rod casting in early morning, and especially in the evening. The fish cruise along the shores for minnows and insects at the time, and are apt to strike at almost any lure that is natural in movement.

Many timely hints for calling all pike to your net are given in Old Hi's booklet "Fishing For The Millions", and you may have a free copy by sending a postcard to me in care of this newspaper. More than 300,000 copies of this book have been requested by fishermen throughout the country.

Anglers who like to battle with tackle-testing fish of the ocean should send for Old Hi's free illustrated booklets called "Salt Water Sports Fishing" (dealing with the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico Coastlines) and "Pacific Coastal Fishing". The latter includes the exciting sport of taking the various species of Pacific salmons by trolling, spinning, and fly rod fishing. Please print your name and address plainly. See you here again next week.

Daly City Library Now Has Many Best Sellers

by Lorraine de Fanti

Librarian j.g.

Following is a partial list of the new books received lately at your Daly City Library.

If you are interested in obtaining any of these books as well as many more older ones, come to the newly repainted and redecorated Daly City Public Library. We can't promise that each and every book will be on the shelf waiting for you, but the librarians will be happy to put your name on a reserve list if necessary.

The trip to your public library will be well worth your while whether you find the particular book you want or not, for it will provide you with an opportunity to admire the newly painted building.

State Rejects Bayshore Bids

JUNE 7. (CNS)—Construction work on a unit of the Bayshore freeway between 17th and Army Streets in the City of San Francisco was delayed this week with the granting of an injunction by the superior court preventing State Director of Public works C. H. Purcell and his department from opening any bids on the project.

The action was brought by Charles L. Harney, Inc., one of three low bidders on the project. The department had opened Harney's bid and two competitors but all were rejected after the department said the amounts were in excess of the cost estimates compiled by department engineers.

Harney is asking the court to compel Purcell and the department to award him the contract as low bidder.

The Department of Public Works announced today it will carry the case to the highest court for the law permits it to reject bids when necessary.

This is the first time, the department said, that this right has been challenged.

NEW AND OLD . . . Two patriarchs of ancient Korea have seen plenty of modern machinery in action with the war that has rolled across their land.

WARREN VETOES DOLWIG'S BODY DISPOSAL BILL

JUNE 7. (CNS)—Governor Earl Warren this week announced veto of assembly bill 3279, by Assembyman Richard E. Dolwig, San Mateo county.

The measure related to the disposal of bodies of deceased persons. In explaining his veto of the measure, the Governor said:

"If the sole purpose of the bill is to authorize boards of supervisors to contract with approved colleges or mortuary science that are licensed as funeral directors by the State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers, I seriously doubt the necessity of the bill. Under present law, boards of supervisors may contract for this purpose with any duly licensed funeral director or embalmer.

"However, if this is the sole purpose of the bill and it were written I would have no objection to signing it if the legislature was of the opinion that this right should be made more clear.

"My main objection to the bill is the following language: 'Bodies of the unclaimed dead shall be made available to the State Department of Public Health in accordance with the provisions of sections 7200 to 7208 of the health and safety code.'

"If the sole purpose of the bill is to provide for the contracts as previously mentioned, this provision is entirely unecessary and should be eliminated. If on the other hand it attempts to change the law concerning unclaimed bodies it is of sufficient gravity to warrant a full and public consideration by the legislature which it may not have had when it is considered that this language appears to be incidental to the main change made by the bill.

"There are many elderly people in our state both in institutions and without who will always believe that this language was inserted for the purpose of authorizing the disposal of their bodies for dissection. I do not believe that this inference should be permitted to disturb these unfortunate citizens during their terminal illnesses of their final days of life.

"If the legislature, upon reflection, believes the remainder of the act without this language is essential to permit boards of supervisors to contract with colleges of mortuary science, I would have no objection to signing such a bill."

MOVING FROM LANE TO LANE

When you have to move from one lane to another in traffic, signal deliberately and move deliberately to give other drivers fair warning of what you are about to do, advises the National Automobile Club. When you have to change from one lane to another, use a little care. It will help you to avoid collision.

SALMON ANGLERS HAVE LUCK

Salmon anglers have been bringing in good catches during the past few days on party boats working out of the San Francisco area, according to the National Automobile Club.

TROUT FISHING GOOD

Trout fishing has been good lately in the Greenhorn Mountain area of Kern County, according to the National Automobile Club.

Navy Offers Unlimited Jobs

Men should take advantage of the opportunity of applying now for a future enlistment announced the Navy Recruiting Office in San Mateo, located in the post office building.

Unlimited are the opportunities a person has upon joining the Navy. The first training is basic indoctrination in navy life, customs, seamanship, and military drill. Job classification tests are given for the purpose of advising and guiding the trainee to follow a line of work for which he or she may be best fitted. Navy trade schools are operating at full capacity and give each student a thorough grounding in many lines of work. Initiative and ambition are rewarded by fast advancement.

Women are also offered the same opportunities as men are eligible for. "Waves," wearing the smart navy blue, are stationed at bases and stations throughout the United States, Hawaii, and England. Education and travel is guaranteed to those who request it.

Don't delay, inquire today! Start your Navy career. Complete your pre-enlistment and select your future enlistment date yourself.

GOOD DRIVERS DO IT

One way of avoiding driving with the hand brake set is to make a practice of reaching over to see if the brake is released after the car is under way, points out the National Automobile Club. It is just by way of checking up on whether the job was done correctly before starting away.
